'Fireworks' Fail To Develop From New Paltz Parley

Mass Meeting Is Attended by Approximately 400; Three Resolutions Are Passed

A mass meeting held at the New Paltz Theatre Tuesday evening under auspices of the Citizens' Education Committee to discuss the recent dismissal of Principal Raymond Cunningham, who was not offered a renewal of his contract by the trustees of the New Paltz Central School District, was attended by approximately 400 citizens. The posted capacity of the theatre is slightly over 400 and there were a few vacant seats in the auditorium.

The expected "fireworks" which had attracted many people to the meeting did not develop and the meeting settled down to a "testimony meeting" at which several persons spoke, telling of the good points of Mr. Cunningham and condemning the trustees for their action in refusing to offer Mr. Cunningham a contract.

Among the persons present were a number of citizens who are in accord with the action of the school board and who had come to witness the "fireworks." During the meeting resolutions were presented for adoption and while the majority of those present voted for the adoption of the resolutions, there were several who arose in protest. Among them was Attorney Peter Harp and several members of his party who voted in opposition to adoption but when the chairman asked Mr. Harp if he had anything to say in opposition, Mr. Harp declined to enter into the controversy.

Walter E. Byrnes, chairman of the Citizens' Education Committee, presided. Mr. Byrnes stated that the object of the meeting was to discuss the Cunningham situation and the entire picture which now exists within the Central School District. He explained that the meeting was directly concerned with the recent dismissal of Mr. Cunningham, an act which he said had aroused the taxpayers and the student body of the high school. He said there was plenty of indignation and displeasure over the matter and it was the purpose of the committee to back Mr. Cunningham "to the limit."

The meeting was then opened to discussion and Mr. Byrnes said he hoped those present would freely express their feelings and make known their wants.

Action taken by the Board of Education was outlined, it being stated that the trustees had declined to offer a new contract to Mr. Cunningham for the coming year and had entered into a contract with a man to replace Mr. Cunningham.

Union Will Pay Stricken Families

Establishes Death Fund of $1,000 to Kin of Pit Victims

Washington, April 9 (AP)—Trustees of the United Mine Workers Welfare Fund today established a $1,000 death benefit payment for the family of each bituminous coal miner belonging to the union.

The death benefit payments were made retroactive to last June 1, and thus the families of the 111 victims of the recent Centralia, Ill., disaster will be among those aided at once.

The Welfare Fund now contains $18,000,000 but John L. Lewis, U.M.W. president and one of the trustees, told reporters the present fund is "insufficient."

Lewis asserted that when the soft coal mines are returned to private ownership by the government, which has been operating them since last May 29:

"The United Mine Workers have no intention of signing any contracts that don't continue a welfare fund."

He strongly hinted the union will demand a levy of ten cents a ton on all soft coal mined to provide the fund. The present fund under government operation comes from a collection of five cents a ton.

Although the contract between the government and Lewis was signed last May 29, it has taken nearly a year to establish the three-man board of trustees, and meantime no money in the fund has been paid out.

Thomas E. Murray, prominent New York engineer and manufacturer, is chairman of the trustees. The government member is Navy Capt. N. H. Collison, coal mine administrator.

The number of families now eligible to receive the $1,000 death benefit is not known, but it runs into several thousand.

Dressen Is Suspended, Parrott and Clubs Are Fined; Result of Charges

Cincinnati, April 9 (AP)—Leo Durocher, manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National League, today was suspended for the 1947 season by Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler.

Chuck Dressen, former coach of the Dodgers and now a member of the New York Yankee coaching staff, was suspended for 30 days beginning April 15.

The Brooklyn club and the New York Yankee club each was fined $2,000.

Harold Parrott, traveling secretary of the Brooklyn team, was fined $500.

The actions were taken as a result of an investigation made by Chandler after Larry McPhail of the New York American League club brought charges of defamation against Durocher and Branch Rickey, head of the Brooklyn club.

Experts Say Recession To Show During Summer

(By The Associated Press)

The outlook is that the current record-breaking business boom in the United States will continue for at least another three months.

After that, the much-discussed recession may come. It is far from a certainty, however. And if it does come, the recession need not lead to a depression.

Many economists and business leaders expect a recession will attain stature this summer. They say that the economy is getting too far out of kilter; that many prices are too high, and that inventories are getting too great as consumers tighten their buying.

There already are indications of a leveling off in retail sales, the Easter season being especially disappointing.

This is the essence of a survey made by the Associated Press across the country at the close of 1947's first quarter. It sums up the record of business leaders and high-ranking economists in government, industry and labor, and factual information culled from key American business centers.

Labor difficulties could upset the predictions. A prolonged closing of the coal mines, more strikes like the telephone walkout, could affect the national scene. Wage negotiations in important industries are pending which might lead to strikes, curtailing production and disrupting the economic timetable.

C. E. Burnett, manager of the Kingston office of the New York Telephone Company, said today in view of statements recently publicized as to telephone company wages in Kingston he submits the following for the public's information:

"Various newspaper reports give $43.19 as the average rate of pay in the telephone industry. This is an average taken from the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics and includes all types of employees, skilled and unskilled, both in the Bell System and independent telephone companies which usually operate in smaller rural communities in all parts of the country. As a national average it also includes thousands of operators and other female employees, many of whom have recently been hired. In upstate New York this figure is being used by some in their agitation for higher wages representing it to be the earnings of skilled plant men."

"The facts are as follows: We are paying wages that compare favorably with those paid by other concerns doing work requiring similar skill and training. Our basic work period is a five day week of 40 hours. Wage rates and earnings are illustrated by the following examples:

"Central Office Repairmen and Cable Splicers: In Kingston the minimum rate is $29 a week with regular increases to a top of $71. In addition these basic rates are substantially increased by overtime and other extra payments currently averaging at least 15 per cent.

"Installer-Repairmen: The minimum rate in Kingston is $29 a week with regular increases to a top of $69. Similarly the earnings of these employees are increased by about 15 per cent currently for overtime and other extra payments.

"We believe that we are paying good wages. Since an honest difference of opinion has developed in collective bargaining particularly as to wage increases, we made an offer which still stands, to submit the basic wage issue to an impartial outside arbitrator.

how long it might last, and how severe it might be are all questions for the future to answer.

Little Gloom Shows

There is little gloom however surrounding the recession talk. Such a period of readjustment would be normal after the present post-war boom. It could be a healthful phase, a period of making the nation's economy reshape, after which there could be continued prosperity and a continuing rise in the standard of living.

But for now, business charts remain heavily weighted with factors favorable to a continuation in the second quarter of trends which made the first three months of 1947 outstandingly good. Some of these factors are:

Around 56,000,000 civilians are gainfully employed against less than 2,500,000 out of work.

Income payments to individuals are running at an annual rate of about $177,000,000,000, an all-time record for the country, including the prosperous war years. (In 1939 it was $70,800,000,000.)

More than $150,000,000,000 is tucked away in liquid assets that can be used by individuals at will to increase current expenditures.

There is an enormous pent-up demand for all types of durable consumer goods, such as furniture, home appliances and automobiles, that run into uncounted billions of dollars.

Helen Barry Says 42 of 48 Operators Are Out Today

The Empire State Telephone Union and the American Union of Telephone Workers (N.F.T.W.) who have been on strike since Monday, last night officially recognized observance of their picket lines by a group of 70 members of the Upstate Traffic Employees Association, Arthur Eymann, locality steward of Local 9, A.U.T.W., said today.

The A.U.T.W. went on record at a mass meeting in Odd Fellows Hall last night that their union will provide protection to any union members who uses his or her legal prerogative of respecting union picket lines.

Approximately 50 members of the traffic group attended the mass meeting which was sponsored jointly by the A.U.T.W. and the Empire State Telephone Union.

The meeting was addressed by members of the executive board of Local No. 9, A.U.T.W., who came from Albany for the session.

In addition to going on record assuring protection to union members observing picket lines, reports made at the meeting noted some instances of intimidation and coercion tactics allegedly being used by the New York Telephone Company management. The report did not elaborate on specific instances or details in regard to the intimidation and coercion.

Vail Gives Statement

Meanwhile Stanley Vail, the New York Telephone Company's General Plant Manager Upstate, today issued the following statement to all Plant Department employees:

"A question has arisen as to the status of the Empire State Telephone Union demand for increased wages, if plant people return to their jobs."

"The company offer made to the executive council of the Empire State Telephone Union, on Tuesday, of last week still stands, viz:

To extend the present contract for a limited period while wage negotiations continue.

To submit basic wage negotiations to impartial outside arbitration.

Mr. Vail's statement said the New York Telephone Company regards the return of men to work as a step towards the resumption of orderly bargaining with the Empire State Telephone Union.

Despite reports from Washington that the telephone strike might not last another day, developments overnight in Kingston revealed that the New York Telephone Company management and employees of various unions now out on strike are still deadlocked over contract negotiations.

Not Affected Locally

The status quo in basic negotiations has not appreciably affected local telephone service, according to a statement issued by Charles S. Burnett, manager of the New York Telephone Company.

Mr. Burnett said that the volume of calls yesterday was somewhat greater than normal because of the weather, but most calls were being handled without unusual delay.

A normal traffic force is on duty, the N.Y.T.C. manager said. He admitted there have been delays on some out-of-state long distance calls but toll calls to all points within the state were being handled without problem.

The questions to be submitted to arbitration in the proposed settlement all involve money, the informants said, although they did not specify the exact issues other than to say that the N.F.T.W.'s demand for a $12 weekly increase was among them.

Top flight arbitrators get $100 a day, and the record would cost another $200, the union figured, making a total of $500 a day. The case would run about 40 days, the bargaining committee for the 20,000 long lines workers said.

Might Cost $20,000

Then the question arose of who would pay arbitration costs which might run $20,000.

The unions and the Labor Department said it lacked the appropriations to do it.

Esopus Legion Post Chooses Dulin for Empire Boys' State

Richard "Richie" Dulin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dulin of Connelly, was designated as its selection to attend Empire Boys' State by Town of Esopus Post, 1298, American Legion, at the post meeting last evening. Jules Viglielmo, chairman of the Boys' State Committee of the post, announced that the popular Kingsboro High School junior had been recommended for the appointment by a faculty committee of the school. Upon a motion by Chairman Viglielmo, and unanimously selected by the post, young "Richie" was selected. Adolph Munson of Port Ewen and Fred Figge of Ulster Park were designated as first and second alternates, respectively.

Empire Boys' State, one of the finest of the Legion's Americanism activities, will be held this year at Colgate University, Hamilton, N. Y., June 22 to June 28. More than 800 boys from all parts of the state will attend with the sponsoring posts, paying all expenses. There will be seven boys from Ulster county going this year from Kingston, Esopus, Woodstock, Highland, Saugerties, Ellenville and Wallkill.

Truman, Cabinet Discuss Prices

No Action Taken, Planned Says Charles Ross After Meeting

Washington, April 9 (AP)—President Truman explored the economic problems of rising prices during an hour and 40-minute cabinet session today, but the White House announced afterward "no action was taken or is planned."

Charles Ross, presidential secretary, gave this report to newsmen after the special midweek session of the cabinet and Mr. Truman's top economic advisers.

Added to the lineup around the cabinet table were Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the President's Economic Advisory Council; Marriner S. Eccles, chairman of the Federal Reserve System, and James E. Webb, budget director.

The participants referred all questions to Ross. He said there was a "general discussion" of the price and economic situation and that President Truman "did a lot of listening."

Ross declined to detail Nourse's report on the inflationary outlook, yesterday. Nourse told reporters he viewed it as "severe."

Crack in Strike Reported Possible; Obstacle Is Cited

Who Will Pay Cost of Five Issue Arbitration Is Big Hurdle for Both Sides

Washington, April 9 (AP)—A crack in the telephone strike deadlock was reported possible within hours today as negotiators went on with day and night sessions.

Persons in close touch with the negotiations on long distance lines phases of the national dispute said the only obstacle to a strike-settling agreement for that industry segment was:

"Who will pay the cost of arbitration at five issues between American Telephone and Telegraph Company's long distance division and the American Union of Telephone Workers?"

With that question settled, the informants said, the proposed agreement could be referred to the policy committee of the American National Federation of Telephone Workers for approval.

The policy committee submitted a meeting at 3 p. m. in the U.S.T.E.A.

An agreement to go to long distance lines would leave strikes of various local Bell System operators unsettled but might pave the way for settlement of the entire strike.

As for the money to pay arbitration costs, these informants predicted:

"It will come from somewhere."

Bard Conference To Open Friday on 'Four Freedoms'

More than 25 Nations Are to Be Represented; Noted Speakers on Program

Annanale-on-Hudson, April 10—An international student conference with representatives from more than 25 countries will meet this week-end at Bard College to inquire into the topic: "What has happened to the Four Freedoms?" Prominent speakers will address three sessions which are open to the public.

Ferdinand Eberstadt, a member of the Baruch Atomic Energy Commission, will make the opening address on Friday evening at 8:30 at the Memorial Gymnasium on "America's Contribution to the Four Freedoms." Saturday afternoon at 4, Neal Burroughs, a resident of the Soviet Union who arrived in this country in February, will give the delegates first-hand information on conditions in that country.

Lubin Will Speak

President Roosevelt's economic adviser, Isador Lubin, will speak to the delegates and residents of this area on Saturday evening at 8 on "World Prospects of the Four Freedoms." Mr. Lubin was American delegate to the Moscow conference in 1945.

Much of the work will be done by four commissions representing each of the Freedoms which will devote all day Saturday to intensive investigation. Each commission is headed by an expert and the members will come from countries as distant as Burma and Australia. The open sessions are designed to present to the public a synthesis of the work of the commissions.

The conference, sponsored by the Social Science Club of Bard College, has as its aim breaking down the barriers between nations and promoting understanding of the problems of other countries.

Jarrell to Speak Thursday

Poet Randall Jarrell, literary editor of "The Nation", will give a lecture at the college Thursday at 8:30 p. m. The subject of the talk will be "Modern Poetry". The lecture will be sponsored by the Division of Languages and Literature, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Jarrell is the author of "Blood for a Stranger", and "Little Friend, Little Friend."

ing shortage in history, calling for a building boom, sometime, of tremendous proportions.

Corporation income and dividend payments are high.

Money for investment at record low interest rates is abundant.

Plant expansion and modernization is proceeding at a rate twice as great as during the best years between 1929 and 1941.

Against these favorable points, economists weigh important factors that are unfavorable. Some of them are:

In many large cities business has declined sharply in the so-called luxury brackets, including the night club and other expensive entertainment fields. Movie attendance is off in some places. A slump in this type of spending could be a first sign of recession.

The average citizen seems convinced that many prices are too high, and economists hold that this conception, whether justified or not, could itself bring about a recession or even a depression if it persists. While dollar volume in retail sales generally remain high, unit sales already are falling off.

The foreign situation is uncertain, adding to the risks of management.

While business failures are still comparatively low—63 in the latest recorded week—they were nearly four times as numerous as last year and probably would mount sharply in any sizable recession. The large number of firms incorporated since 1940 have known only good times and are untested in bad times.

Commercial, agricultural and business loans of 101 reporting banks of the Federal Reserve System have risen to an all-time high of above $11,000,000,000. This indicates goods are piling up—that production and distribution basic factors in the economy, are out of kilter.

(Editor's note: The country's economists, weighing the factors on both sides, generally agree that a period of readjustment must come this summer. Most predict a recession. Their views will be discussed in detail tomorrow.)

Artificial Arm Handy

A Finnish war invalid has invented an artificial arm, in Helsinki, which he says allows an amputee to perform virtually any task. He mentions, for example, nailing, carrying and using a camera, drilling in wood or iron, carrying milk cans in a light wheelbarrow, turning turf with a spade, cutting with a scythe and digging potatoes.

ness to start the activity on Saturday night at the Town Building. The committee has been working diligently to get the details in order and it is expected this activity will substantially increase the building fund.

The incorporation of the post is going through the necessary legal channels with Connally and Connally handling the matter. Last evening the officers of the post, who will act as the board of directors, signed the application. The corporate name of the post will be "Town of Esopus Post, 1298, American Legion, Department of New York, Inc."

Reuben Gillian of Ulster Park was designated by Commander Robert J. Henry as the Memorial Day chairman and his committee will start work on the activity in the near future.

The post went on record to call to the attention to the people of the community the importance of Army Week, which is being celebrated throughout the nation. Particular emphasis in this regard being placed on the importance of the National Guard units which will be formed in Kingston in the near future.

A motion to support the Town of Esopus Chamber of Commerce was passed and it was voted to take out a membership as it did last year. Refreshments were served after the meeting. Robert Doyle, activities chairman, was in charge. A social hour was enjoyed with the members of Ladies' Auxiliary.

United States Hotel Bought by Morris For Speculation

The United States Hotel property at 555 Broadway has been purchased from the Kingston Savings Bank by Claremont Robert Morris, local real estate broker. Yesterday Mr. Morris said that he had purchased the property for the purpose of re-sale because he believed "property in that locality presented a good investment." The property, located at the corner of Broadway and Greenhill avenue, is a three story brick hotel structure with 25 rooms on the upper floors and five stores on the ground floor. There is also a frame addition to the rear which is occupied as living apartments.

For many years the hotel was operated by Patrick J. O'Pray and later was operated by H. M. Price and M. Beadle. Of late it has been conducted by Mrs. Grace P. Telepas.

On the first floor is located the American Cleaners, Artie's Lunch, the jewelry store of Otto Seydel and the Gardenia Products, manufacturers of cleaning compounds.

The Kingston Savings Bank was represented by Lloyd R. LeFever at the sale and the purchaser by Harry Gold. While no statement was made as to the purchase price, revenue stamps attached to the transfer papers indicate a price of $18,000.

Shakespeare wrote his plays exclusively for the Blackfriars and Globe theatres in London.

The port of New York has 650 miles of waterfront.

Community Property Laws Are Getting Close Scrutiny

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY

Chicago, April 9 (AP)—Lawmakers searching for ways and means to cut federal income tax payments are taking a close look at community property laws.

Stripped to essentials, such laws provide that property acquired by a husband or wife during their marriage, including earnings, belongs to both of them. They can file two income tax returns, each reporting half of the family income. Thus, they can get into lower brackets and get the benefit of lower surtax rates.

Community tax bills have been drafted in Illinois, and have been introduced in the Missouri, Michigan and Colorado Legislatures. A similar proposal was defeated in Indiana.

The proposed Illinois legislation would enable married couples to file separate returns on income from salaries, stocks, bonds, businesses and real estate. But property either had before marriage, and gifts and bequests after marriage, would belong solely to the one who owned or received them.

The Illinois sponsor, State Rep. W. Russell Arrington, estimated such an arrangement would slice $150,000,000 a year from the tax bills of Illinoisans.

Measures now pending in Congress would permit married couples in all states to report earnings for income tax purposes on a community property basis.

Nine States Have Laws

Nine states now have community property laws.

Rising taxes apparently revived interest in recent years.

The financial effects have been two-fold. A lot of married people in the nine community property states have saved lot of money.

What they gained, the federal government lost.

Stanley S. Surrey, tax legislative counsel of the U. S. Treasury, has commented in that connection:

"The community property system, whether rooted in state history or adopted as a tax-saving expedient, works wonders through economic family income-splitting."

The rewards of this splitting are high—15 per cent reduction at the $10,000 level, 20 per cent at the $25,000 level, 20 per cent at the $100,000 level. In short, middle bracket community property citizens have a federal tax holiday at least every fifth year."

Savings They Enjoy

Students of the subject figure married couples with no dependents in community property states enjoy annual federal tax savings as follows: $38 on a $5,000 income; $342 on $10,000; $893 on $15,000; $1,700 on $20,000; $2,662 on $25,000; $6,213 on $50,000; $12,854 on $100,000; $23,921 on $500,000.

The difference may be enough to cause some industrialists to move to community property states.

One way to equalize things would be extension of community property tax benefits to the 39 states which lack them. Another tack has been tried. Attempts to make a joint return mandatory for married couples failed in Congress in 1941 and 1942.

Under community property laws, with small incomes get little, if any benefit.

And the only way a bachelor can get a tax break is to march down the road to matrimony.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Father, Son Diner

Something new in scouting in the Ulster-Greene Council area will be the first annual Campers' Reunion to be held Saturday evening in the Grange hall at Lake Katrine. It will be a father and son dinner meeting, with the ladies of the Grange serving dinner at 6:15.

While this is primarily a reunion of those who attended the Boy Scout camp at East Jewett last summer, Camp Director Earl R. Allyn says that any scout who is interested in camp is welcome to come and bring his dad with him.

The Order of the Arrow men, as well as the honor campers, will have separate tables. The Order of the Arrow is an honorary camping fraternity and 13 scouts qualified last summer at the East Jewett camp. There are also others who qualified during the war years when camp facilities of the Fort Orange Council were utilized. Percy Korth, titular of the Swangolian Indians, also will be on hand at the dinner for an old-fashioned hoe-down of his loyal subjects. Camp emblems will be presented Saturday night and movies taken at the camp will be shown.

Camp to Open July 6

The spring bulletin, issued by Scout Executive D. Gregory Badger, states that the East Jewett camp will open July 6. It will operate until August 3 at least, longer if necessary.

Good news for the scouts is the statement that the dam is practically finished and the scouts will have a lake covering three and a half acres for swimming and water sports. It is in the shape of a bowl, with a 15-foot deep diving hole and shallowing to the edges.

A sandy beach also is to be constructed.

There will be a new camp site for another provisional troop and plenty of beautiful camp sites available for chartered troops to occupy by themselves.

It is expected that old staff members, including Carl Taylor, Ray Hendrickson, Bob Tremper, Don Kremer and Don Hendrickson will be at the camp again this coming season.

The Scout Executive emphasizes the need of Scoutmasters being in camp with their troops. He says, "Scouts should be under the direction of their own troop leaders. This is the greatest opportunity the Scoutmaster has. Here he can conduct a real outdoor camping program, with the benefit of all kinds of facilities and personnel to help him." Remember, he adds, this is the very stuff a boy joins for—and hopes to get.

ACCIDENT CAUSES

More accidents are caused by home tensions, financial worries and emotional upsets than by physical hazards, according to the latest pronouncements of safety engineers. Accidents annually cost 17,500 deaths, almost two million injuries and two billion dollars.

Many of the people involved are repeaters. This was demonstrated in such studies as that of 5,000 automobile drivers in Connecticut which showed that 300 drivers were responsible for 72 per cent of the accidents, many of the 300 having had several mishaps. Most of them had personal problems of one sort and another. In another safety campaign 100 persons who had had from three to five accidents each were observed and it was found that all of them had maladjustments in their background, such as domestic trouble, heavy debts, bad-tempered parents.

A homely old adage says: "Haste makes waste." The speeding motorist takes too broad a chance, the factory worker doesn't stop to use the safety device, the housewife spills hot soup on her feet. They all hurry because they are badly adjusted. They are giving too much mental energy to some other problem at the wrong time. It begins to look as if one's emotions and attitudes, one's personal life, are mighty important. And the most important advice is to do one thing at a time. Drive with whole attention while driving. Put the mind on the machine while making it do its work. Think hard about the personal problems at a time when the muscles are not engaged in a dangerous occupation.

TAX EVASION DANGERS

Treasury agents recovered a billion and a half dollars in additional income taxes last year and expect to raise this figure considerably this year. Detailed scrutiny of returns begins at the $7,000 level and increases in intensity until all incomes of $25,000 and over get thorough checking. Joseph D. Nunn, Jr., Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is making good on his promise to Congress that for every dollar spent on checking, $20 would be recovered in additional returns. This year, for example, his department expects to audit about three per cent of all income tax returns, and to go back through files covering the war years.

About how much food, how many calories are needed by the body of the average man or woman when he or she is at absolute rest in bed?

Even when at complete rest the body needs not less than 200 calories to take care of its muscular work, 400 in light office or housework, up to 700 in light factory work (light muscular work), 1,100 in medium hard work and 3,000 or more calories in heavy lifting work. This accounts for the needs of physical work.

The amount needed by the body to do its various jobs inside the body is about 1500 calories.

If, then, without doing even the slightest amount of physical work the body needs 1500 calories, if we add what it needs when it does work, from resting to the heaviest type of work, we can each know how much food we need if we are of average build and height—men 5 feet 7 inches, 150 pounds, and women 5 feet 4 inches, 130 pounds. For each inch above or below this height and if slender or stocky we can add to or subtract from the number of calories we should eat daily to maintain proper weight for our physique. To this we add the number of calories needed because of the work we do—1500 plus 200 to 1500 plus 3000. That is 1700 to 4500 or more.

Eating Your Way To Health

Be sure you are getting the proper all round daily diet for your type of build, occupation, etc. Send today for Dr. Barton's handy booklet on this subject entitled "Eating Your Way to Health." News of a rather unusual sort is reported by winter tourists in the tropics. In Kingston, Jamaica, for example, they say that the farther you get from the States, the more you can buy with your dollars. An American woman announces that she can get pressed for 27 cents in Kingston a dress that would cost her $2.50 for pressing in Nassau.

There has been no authentic report from the men, but presumably they live so continuously in bathing trunks that there's nothing to report.

'These Days'

MR. YOUNG'S HOG

Some months ago the newspapers and magazines published advertisements, sponsored by Robert R. Young and paid for by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, showing a hog, proudly traveling in a boxcar, smoking a cigar while John Q. Traveller, his wife and child and baggage stand dumbfounded before the apparition.

It was good advertising copy and until I received a letter from a reader calling attention to the unlawfulness of the proposition, I, like millions of others, assumed that the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad and the aforementioned Mr. Young knew what they were talking about, which turns out to be so.

The purpose of the advertisement was to "give humans a break." Its object is to advocate a train going through from New York to San Francisco and similar places without changing at Chicago or St. Louis. The idea was that a hog can do it, why not a man? Of course, there are lots of things a hog can do which a man does at his peril, such as the manufacture of lard in great quantities. Also man can do many things that a hog can't do, such as to conduct an investigation into a mistatement of fact.

Mr. Young's advertisement asks:

"Why should travel be less convenient for people than it is for pigs? Why should Americans be denied the benefits of through train service? . . ."

Why, indeed? As a matter of fact, I have often wondered why the railroads do not run right across the continent. Why can't all the trains come into one station? But then, why do we not have one department store, one huge meat market, one monstrous motion picture theatre in each city?

However, after this reader wrote me telling that a hog cannot legally travel from San Francisco to New York without stopping, I decided to look up the law to see if the C & O, which uses sleeping kittens for its trademark, perpetrated a hoax.

There is a Federal Law, approved June 29, 1906, and now in force. This is "An act to prevent cruelty to animals while in transit by railroad or other means of transportation from one State or Territory or the District of Columbia into or through another State or Territory or the District of Columbia. . . ."

This law provides that animals shall not be confined in ". . . cars, boats, or vessels of any description for a period longer than twenty-eight consecutive hours without unloading the same in a humane manner, into properly equipped pens for rest, water and feeding, for a period of at least five consecutive hours. . . ."

That means that Mr. Young's hog, starting in San Francisco, could travel 28 hours, would then be unloaded, placed in a pen for five hours, where he would be fed, watered and manicured. Further, that the five hours must not include the time of loading or unloading. The law makes an exception or two but states its intent clearly in the following language:

". . . It being the intent of this act to prohibit their continuous confinement beyond the period of twenty-eight hours. . . ."

However, the speeding motorist takes too broad a chance, the factory worker doesn't stop to use the safety device, the housewife spills hot soup on her feet. They all hurry because they are badly adjusted. They are giving too much mental energy to some other problem at the wrong time. It begins to look as if one's emotions and attitudes, one's personal life, are mighty important. And the most important advice is to do one thing at a time. Drive with whole attention while driving. Put the mind on the machine while making it do its work. Think hard about the personal problems at a time when the muscles are not engaged in a dangerous occupation.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M. D.

HOW MANY CALORIES DO WE NEED DAILY?

The amount of food each of us needs depends on our size and the amount of physical work we do, or exercise taken. If we gain in weight after we have reached our normal height and maturity about 27 for men, 25 for women, it is because we have eaten more than we need for the size of our body and the work we do.

There is lots to this business, so much more that I personally am pleased not to be in the business of shipping hogs—so much more that it is simpler to transport babies, even with a changeover at Chicago or St. Louis. I wonder why whoever provides Mr. Young with information in Palm Beach forgot to tell him all this.

This year, for example, his department expects to audit about three per cent of all income tax returns, and to go back through files covering the war years.

Certain groups are hardest to check for tax evasions. These include farmers, doctors, lawyers and the so-called service trades like waiters, bell hops, taxi drivers, tailors. The treasury department has learned where to look for leaks, as in cash transactions, lavish spending by people of obviously modest salaries, padded expense accounts. It keeps an eye on tavern keepers, tavern frequenters, and race-course habitués.

The department has let it be known that it is putting returns through a fine sieve. As a result 150,000 persons voluntarily came across with additional payments that amounted to two hundred million last year. More are expected to do so this year.

Honesty is the best policy. Tax evaders will find this out.

Settlement Made

Settlement was made in County Court in an action brought by Louis A. Rolling, landlord, against Thomas DiLorenzo and Loren Theatres, Inc., occupants of the Colonial Hall in New Paltz. The action involved in the recovery of tenancy of the building by plaintiff under a provision of the Civil Practice Act and was being tried before a six man jury provided by law. However the case was not sent to the jury. The premises is the former Catholic hall. Abram Strifer appeared for petitioner and Peter H. Harp for defendants. Court recessed until Thursday at 10 o'clock and jurors were excused until Monday afternoon.

Tots 'Loaned' to Science

Three thousand babies have been "loaned" to the British Medical Research Council for a vast experiment to check the whooping cough menace. Sauer vaccine, flown from America, is being given to children aged between six and 12 months. They will be checked constantly by health visitors and kept under observation for two years.

Chinese Film is Modern

The first Chinese language color film, now in production in Hawaii by Oliver Pang, island cinematographer, will be modern drama, its Shanghai sponsors report. It will depict, for what is asserted to be the first time, from rigid, pantomimic, stock Chinese drama, Mei Ling and Dolly Coffe, Chinese-American entertainers, have roles.

Radar 'Signposts' Can Be Located In Polar Deserts

U.S.S. Mt. Olympus, April 9 (P)—Radar makes it possible to put "signposts" on the trackless snow deserts of the South Polar continent, the Byrd Antarctic Expedition learned.

In one experiment at Little America, a plane dropped some metalized paper on the Ross ice-shelf plateau. Later another plane using its airborne search radar picked up a strong signal from the plane's radar screen.

Even though a blizzard or drifting snow covered the paper, it still would be detected by the radar, said Lieut. Robert L. Nichols of Xenia, Ill., airborne electronics officer. The paper probably could be "seen" by radar even if it became covered by 10 to 15 feet of snow, since snow is a poor conductor, he said.

Such markers could be valuable signposts in flat, featureless areas. In exploration, Nichols said, a plane could mark the limits of its flight, to be picked up by another plane coming out later to continue on into an unknown area. The paper markers also could be dropped in groups to give planes guide bearings back to their base, or to lead rescue planes to downed aircraft.

Survivors of the P.B.M. Mariner which crashed December 30 in east Antarctica laid out radar reflectors, but these were never detected by search planes. The reason has not been explained in dispatches received aboard this ship. However, Nichols said, the reflectors used give a much smaller reflecting surface than the metalized paper, and the search planes may have been too far off to detect them. A smudgy fire set by the survivors drew the search plane to them.

A second, incomplete experiment indicated that portable radar beacons, set up parallel on the snowstrip, could be used to guide planes in for landings on overcast days when the snow surface and horizon blend indistinguishably in milky whiteness, Nichols said.

Coin Machines Do 500 Million Trade Says M. S. Board

Washington, April 9 (P)—Coin-operated machines are selling $500,000,000 worth of cigarettes, candy and drinks a year, the Commerce Department estimated today.

Some retail experts figure the machines will be doing a $3,000,000-a-year business by 1957, a department report said.

There were 4,000,000 of them before their manufacture was stopped in wartime to save scarce materials.

Eggs, cream, butter, cheese and other dairy products, fresh meats and fish are some of the perishables which machines are expected to sell soon.

The department pointed out that in England candy, perfume, lipstick, and assorted drugstore-type items are sold by machines wheeled outside at closing time to take care of after-hours customers.

The article said the machines will replace people at some tasks but will create demand for greater production of the goods they sell, thus stimulating employment in other lines.

Wells Reports He Caught Lone Shad Near Ulster Park

The first shad catch of the season—a single shad at that—was reported today by Leroy Wells, of 48 Hasbrouck avenue, who caught a six pound five ounce beauty in a drift net near Ulster Park. He was accompanied by Harry Woerner of Kingston.

Wells' catch also included a 13-pound carp and came on his second day out.

Reports from local fishing centers reflected the complete failure of fishermen to catch the lucrative Hudson river fish. Frank Watzka of East Kingston was reported making heavy hauls of carp and suckers, but no shad.

Financial and Commercial

New York, April 9 (P)—The stock market regained a measure of balance today after Tuesday's late dip.

Dealers were nervous from the start and several issues, retreated into new low ground for the year, but industrials developed resistance to further downward pressures. Activity was somewhat above that of recent slow sessions. Price changes were well mixed near the fourth hour.

Commission houses reported many customers stood aside to await possible developments from cabinet discussion of the price situation, while labor dispute in some sectors and additional effects of the partial shutdown of coal production remained as restraining influences. Dividend news lent support to some individual favorites.

Reaching higher levels were Republic Steel, Youngstown Sheet, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Norfolk & Western, Great Northern Preferred, Eastern Kodak, American Woolen, Pacific Western Oil (at new 1947 high), Kennebunk, Western Union "A" and Union Carbide. St. Paul Preferred, and United States Lines climbed in response to dividend declarations. Retreating were Schenley, Texas Co., Santa Fe, Baltimore & Ohio, American Telephone, J. I. Case, Westinghouse Electric and North American.

Lower in the curb were St. Lawrence Corp., Textron, Fansteel, Niagara Hudson Power, Cities Service and McCord Corp.

42 Operators Are Out

Forty-two of the forty-eight telephone operators who announced yesterday they would honor picket lines in front of the New York Telephone Company building on Broadway, were still out this morning, according to Miss Helen Barry, spokesman for the Upstate Traffic Employees Association, an independent union with which the operators are affiliated.

Miss Barry said she was unable to speak for a number of operators who were scheduled to return to duty late today and this evening.

The operators were not in the picket lines this morning and pickets were reported out in greatly reduced numbers.

Miss Barry said that all operators on duty at the local plant were Kingston women, spiking reports that out-of-town operators had been brought to Kingston to bolster the local staff.

The U.T.E.A. spokesman said yesterday that while the union was not wholly in accord with the action of the operators who decided to stay off duty that their prerogative to respect the picket lines would be honored. The operators, however, are not paid for time lost while observing picket lines.

Kirk Still Is Critical

Morris Kirk, injured in an explosion of dynamite Sunday at his Highland home, was reported still in a serious condition at Vassar Hospital today. His brother, William, who suffered from shock as he stood just outside the kitchen door when the explosion took place in the cellar, attended the funeral services of his sister, Anna, and his mother, Mrs. Rebecca Kirk, yesterday. The mother and sister were fatally injured as they sat at the dinner table in the house when the explosion took place.

Old Graves Discovered

Little Hugh and Graham Caus顿, playing on a kopje six miles from Bulawayo, Southern Rhodesia, found an old Matabele grave where a native was buried, sitting up and facing east, according to old Matabele custom. The native must have been 5 feet 9 inches, tall, scientists said. The skull is now in Whitestones School museum.

Local Death Record

The funeral of Mrs. William Jardine was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the James M. Murphy Funeral Home. Burial was in Montrose Cemetery. Services were conducted by the Rev. Frank L. Gollnick, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church.

Bearers at the funeral of Evelyn Barringer of 38 Abeel street Tuesday morning were Elias Ellsworth, Richard Barringer, George Ellsworth and George Barringer, Jr. Funeral services were held at the W. N. Conner Funeral Home and Holy Cross Church. Interment was in Tongore Cemetery. The film was "Frankenstein Meets the Wolf Man."

Kids Rush Horror Film

Glasgow police dispersed a demonstration by hundreds of children outside a movie theatre, who were demanding admission to a "horror film." Scottish censorship ruled the film could be shown only to those over 16 years of age. Shouting, "We're not afraid of Frankenstein," the children caused such a clamor that the manager called police who had trouble in preventing small boys and girls from slipping between their legs into the theatre. The film was "Frankenstein Meets the Wolf Man."

Wine Buys A Wife

JAMES XAMBA, 30-year-old native, got a wife for three bottles of wine, he testified when charged in Paarl, South Africa, with abducting a 15-year-old native girl.

Xamba went to the girl's parents to tell them she was pregnant. They asked him to pay lobola—a gift to the girl's father in the form of cattle—but he gave her mother three bottles of wine and agreed to pay lobola later.

cisively defeated at a meeting held at the Gardiner schoolhouse Monday evening. The vote showed but 20 of those present favoring the move to do away with the school, while 82 wanted it maintained.

The meeting had been called by the Board of Education of the New Paltz Central School District on petition of about 20 residents of the Gardiner District who favored closing the school.

Theodore Wright presided at the meeting, with Attorney Peter Harp of New Paltz representing the board of education of the Central School District. John Moran of Gardiner is the district member of the board.

Following the meeting there was some discussion of the need for improvements to the Gardiner school property. It was brought out that 18 years ago when Gardiner went into the Central School District various improvements and betterments had been promised, but that little if anything had been done toward making good on the promises.

The school has an attendance of about 30 pupils, under direction of two teachers.

Cimillo Says Money Trouble Back of Trip

New York, April 9 (AP)—It was money trouble, says bus driver William Cimillo, that prompted him to head for Florida in a new $18,000 bus on March 28 instead of taking it on its usual route in the Bronx.

Brought back from Hollywood, Fla., to face a grand larceny charge here, the 37-year-old driver told his troubles to reporters after his release on $1,000 bail yesterday.

"I had a little trouble financially and I wanted to get away and go somewhere to think it over quietly," Cimillo explained.

He confirmed a statement by Bronx Assistant District Attorney Edward Breslin that he was pressed by more than $2,000 in debts.

"I had no intention of stealing the bus," Cimillo said. "I just went for a joyride."

While he said he "really enjoyed the trip down—no headaches," Cimillo was less enthusiastic about the return trip. Coming home, he had for company: Two detectives, another prisoner they were returning from Florida, and a bus company mechanic, who did the driving.

A sweet young thing who had been working in a factory during war-time greeted a friend with a sigh of relief. "I certainly feel better since I saw that doctor," she confided. "What did he do for you?" asked the other. "Do you remember those hard lumps in my arms that I was worried about?" said the first. "Well, he looked at them and told me that they were just muscles."

An insurance company wrote out a $1,000 life policy in the name of one Samuel Johnson. Premiums were paid promptly for a few years, but suddenly stopped. After sending a few delinquent notices, the company received this reply:

"Dear Sirs: Please excuse us as we can't pay any more premiums on Sam, he died last May. Yours truly, Mrs. S. Johnson."

"Doris thought she would marry Jack until she found out how much he spent at the tailors."

"Well?"

"Then she decided to marry the tailor."

Mother—I suppose my little man was very good at the party just as I told you to be. You didn't ask for anything twice at the table, did you?

Little Man—No, I didn't. I asked once and they didn't hear me so I helped myself.

A pretty girl entered a music shop and went to the counter where a new clerk was sorting out sheet music. "Pardon me," she said, "but have you 'Kissed Me in the Parlor One Night'?" The clerk looked at her startled and blushed. "S-sorry, Miss," he stammered. "But it must have been the clerk at the other counter. I've only been here a week."

The cadets were talking about a former fellow air-corps student who had been transferred. "Why do you suppose he ever went into the air service anyway?" asked one. "That's easy," responded one of the ground crew. "He was no truly good."

Geezer—What did the doctor say about you?

Gumbo—He said I was sound as a dollar.

Geezer—Was that all?

Gumbo—No. Then he sent me a bill for $5.

Keep plugging and you'll get by. The hen that lays an egg a day never has anything to fear from the farmer.

The cadets were talking about a former fellow air-corps student who had been transferred. "Why do you suppose he ever went into the air service anyway?" asked one. "That's easy," responded one of the ground crew. "He was no truly good."

A city man who had enjoyed his stay on a certain farm the previous summer, wrote to ask the farmer if he might have the same room again this year, then added: "But I'd appreciate it if you'd make that pig-pen from where it was under my window, as the noise bothered me." The farmer wrote in reply: "Keeping the same room for you. And don't let the pigpen bother you, because we ain't had no hogs on this farm since you left last year."

Father: An' how's Lawyer Jones doin' Doctor.

Doctor: Poor fellow! He's lying at death's door.

Father: That's grit for yeat-death's door, and still lying.

When you reach the point where you think the night was made for sleeping purposes your fun is about over.

Prabs Draw Crowds
Families in new prefabricated house at Orangefield Estate, Belfast, Northern Ireland, are "fed up" with sightseers who peer through their windows and letter-boxes to view the interiors. All but Mrs. J. Gill, who has invited 300 inside to see for themselves. "They are all welcome," she says. "Naturally, they want to see what the new houses are like inside."

State Rent Law Extends to 1948 As Governor Signs

Statute Stipulates It Shall Not Be Operative if Federal Law Is Functioning

Albany, N. Y., April 9 (UPI)—The state residential rent control law—operative only if federal regulation ends—today was extended for one year, until June 30, 1948, by Governor Dewey's signature on the Stephen bill.

The measure, appropriating $1,500,000 for administration, contained no major changes. There is no "rollback" provision. If the federal government grants rent increases and subsequently terminates control, New York will inherit any federally-approved ceiling boosts.

(President Truman has asked Congress to continue federal control another year until June 30, 1948, but the banking and currency committees of both houses favor a bill extending controls until next March 31.)

Most important of the "clarifying" and administrative alterations to the act is one stipulating that the state law shall not become operative while any federal control exists.

In effect, if Washington controls are modified or limited, no matter how greatly, the state law would not become operative in a particular area or type of rental.

Action Is Automatic

If or when federal controls ends completely, the New York law automatically establishes rent controls in all areas where federal ceilings existed. In addition, the state rent commissioner is empowered to declare and lift controls in any other areas where he deems action necessary.

Practically all of the state's urban areas now are under federal controls.

The major difference between federal and New York control is that the state law exempts new construction.

The original law and the extension were sponsored by Assemblyman D. Mallory Stephens, Putnam county Republican.

Other Measures Signed

Other bills signed:

- Authorize creation of a Fishers Island ferry district in the town of Southold, Suffolk county, with authority to acquire and operate a public ferry.

Permit municipalities to make agreements for policing properties of the lower Hudson and central New York Regional Market Authorities.

Empower the town of Wilmington, Essex county, to repair and construct water facilities at a cost of $10,000 in the event no proposals for the jobs can be obtained.

Permit the use of state aid granted to cities and counties for health purposes for services and facilities "provided for children regardless of the school which they legally attend."

The governor vetoed a bill that would have increased from $1,300 to $2,500 the amount of single purchase that could be made by the Nassau county purchasing agent without sealed bids.

Suffers Fainting Spell
Mrs. Helen C. Thornell, of 142 Clinton avenue, who suffered a fainting spell near the central post office about 11:30 a. m. Tuesday, was reported in fair condition at the Kingston Hospital this morning. Witnesses who saw Mrs. Thornell collapse on the sidewalk near the post office building summoned Conner's ambulance and the stricken woman was conveyed to the hospital.

Central Announces 546 New Industries on Line

A record number of new industries located in a single year on the lines of the New York Central System was established during 1946, it was announced today by the Industrial Division of the New York Central's Freight Traffic Department.

The 1946 record totals 546 new industries and it is estimated that they will produce annually an approximate volume of 204,900 carloads of freight traffic, or the equivalent of that produced by a major city.

The location of these new businesses in the territory served by the New York Central demonstrates the continuing growth of that great manufacturing section of the United States, extending through the north-central and north-eastern states.

The rising growth in commercial importance of small cities and communities in the territory during 1946 was also indicated by the report of the Industrial Division.

New industries, both large and small, which favored location in cities or communities of less than 25,000 population, were 57.3 percent of the total. In many instances, new sites were purchased and new plants and facilities constructed.

Wings Over Jordan Choir to Sing Here

REV. G. T. SETTLE

"Wings Over Jordan," choir will be presented in a concert at Kingston High School auditorium Monday, April 28, under the auspices of the New Central Baptist Church. The choir was originated and is directed by the Rev. Glynn T. Settle.

It is heard Sunday mornings over the Columbia Broadcasting System network from 11:05 to 11:30 o'clock. During its tour last year it visited 150 cities throughout the Eastern, Southern and mid-western states. Just prior to the tour the choir was on a 10-month U.S.O. overseas tour.

Two concerts are planned for the Kingston appearances. A concert at which special prices will be set for children will be held in the afternoon and another concert will be given in the evening.

Press reviews praise the choir. The Cincinnati Times Star reported "a truly great choir . . . any one who is at all moved by music, which reaches into the infinite, must certainly never miss an opportunity to hear this great choir. It has an on-pitch perfectly clear diction . . . an uncommon insight into the pure essence of music . . . This choir is to American music what the Don Cossack choirs are to Russian native music."

Ulster Garden Club Opened Year Tuesday

Ulster Garden Club opened its season Tuesday afternoon with a meeting at the home of Mrs. G. Wallace Codwise, 10 Pearl street.

Mrs. G. V. D. Hutton, president, presided at the meeting.

Plans for the year's program were announced. The club will resume its customary two meetings a month. During the war years the group had met but once a month.

Much interest was shown in competition for the awards offered by Edward Cokendall and Mr. Hutton for the best garden project and flower arrangements of the year.

Following the meeting a social hour was held.

Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Messing formerly of 109 St. James street, have moved into their new home at 44 Plymouth avenue.

George Long Marries Jean Kelly Sunday In Church Rectory

The marriage of Miss Jean Elizabeth Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kelly, 133 Ten Broeck avenue, to George Francis Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Long, 52 Van Buren street, was performed in a double ring ceremony at the rectory of St. Joseph's Church, Easter Sunday at 10 o'clock. The Rev. John D. Simmons officiated.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white faille gown with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves, ruffled back terminating in a train. Her Juliet cap caught a veil of imported Swiss illusion. She carried calla lilies bound with sweet pea streamers.

Miss Gloria Lopez, step-sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was made of green taffeta and she wore mitts of lace, half hat of American beauty roses and carried an arm bouquet of the same flowers with white streamers. Miss Evelyn Long, sister of the bridegroom; as bridesmaid, wore a pink net gown with American beauty roses arranged in a half hat, and pink lace mitts. She also carried an arm bouquet of the roses.

Joseph Long was his brother's best man.

A reception for 90 guests was held at the Rose Marie Cabins. Guests attended from Connecticut and Newburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Long left for a wedding trip to New York city. The bride wore a grey gabardine suit with matching hat and red accessories. They will live at 52 Van Buren street.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Kingston High School. Mrs. Long is employed at the Fullert Shirt Co., Inc. Mr. Long is an army veteran and is employed at the U. S. Lace Curtain Mills.

Teresa Rua Bride Of Vincent Legregni On Easter Sunday

Miss Teresa Rua, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rua of East Kingston was married Easter Sunday at 2:30 p. m. to Vincent Legregni, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Legregni of Rochelle Park, N. J. The double ring ceremony was performed at St. Colman's Church by the Rev. William Brennan.

Candles, Easter flowers and palms decorated the church. Martin Kelly, accompanied by Miss Margaret Volker, at the organ, sang "Avia Maria."

The bride was escorted by her father. Her gown of heavy damask was fashioned with long pointed sleeves edged with beads, off-shoulder neckline with wide turn back yoke effect trimmed with beads, draped pillow sides, cocktail front and simulated bustle with long train. Her scalloped fingertip veil was attached to a regal crown trimmed with beads. She carried a bouquet of beads. She carried a bouquet of beads.

Miss Marie Rua was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a gown of yellow faille trimmed with sheer net and lace. Her headpiece was a yellow faille crown and she carried American Beauty roses.

Salvatore Blunda was best man for the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception for the immediate families was held at the Penguin. Mr. and Mrs. Legregni left for a wedding trip through northern New York. For traveling the bride chose a plum color suit with hat to match, beige topper, orchid corsage. Upon their return they will make their home at 3 Bal avenue, East Paterson, N. J.

Poughkeepsie Couple Wed in Woodstock

Miss Lillian Scull and Dorland Eighmie of Poughkeepsie were married by the Rev. Harvey I. Todd, pastor of the Woodstock Dutch Reformed Church Saturday at 2 p. m. in the church parsonage. Their attendants, Mrs. Ivan Mallow, a cousin, wore a gown of dusty rose silk crepe with matching hat and a corsage of pink rosebuds and sweet peas. Mr. Mallow was best man.

Following the ceremony the bridal party had dinner at Schoenig's Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Eighmie left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. They will make their home in Poughkeepsie.

Mrs. Eighmie, a descendant of early settlers of Woodstock, is a former court stenographer in Poughkeepsie. Mr. Eighmie is a chiropractor.

ANNOUNCEMENTS OF BABY ADOPTION

The following suggestion is one I have never heard before and I think it extremely interesting. A reader tells me: "My husband and I have plans and high hopes for adopting a little girl. We believe we will be here within a month, and we'd like to send announcements to a long list of people scattered all over the country who, we feel, will be happy for us. We'd like to send the conventional announcement for a baby—the little card tied to the parents' card, and opposite the date of birth, in the right hand corner, to add 'adopted.' Would this be permissible?"

In my opinion, this would be entirely proper—especially tied to the "Mr. and Mrs." card—rather than to the card of "Mrs." alone. (As a matter of fact, the "Mrs." card is rarely set today, except by a widow.)

Refreshments for Teenagers

Dear Mrs. Post: What would be the nicest refreshments to serve at our hours to a group of us before our school dance, which is to include a buffet supper?

Answer: I would suggest any sort of fruit or vegetable juice, iced tea, juice and little peanut butter sandwiches are what the younger groups that I happen to know about now like best.

Showers First, Housewarming Later

Dear Mrs. Post: You have said that a housewarming is the first party given after owners or tenants have moved into their new house or apartment. Does this mean that I should not give a shower for a friend who is getting married, first, before we give our official housewarming? I'd like to give the parties in that order.

Answer: Although the housewarming does naturally come first, there is no real reason why you couldn't give the shower first, if necessary.

Handwritten Announcements

Dear Mrs. Post: May we write announcements of our marriage to send to those who live out of town? Our list is not long enough to have them engraved and yet several of those on my fiance's list are strangers to me, and I thought it might be easier to follow the formal wording when writing by hand. We are both in our upper twenties and will announce the marriage ourselves.

Answer: Your suggestion is entirely proper.

Cocktail parties are very popular. How to send out the invitations and what to serve is some of the information given in Mrs. Post's leaflet, "Serving Cocktails."

To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, care of The Kingston Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

Married Saturday

MRS. GEORGE J. BRUCK

St. Colman's Church Scene of Bruck-Guido Wedding Saturday

St. Colman's Church, East Kingston, was the setting for the wedding of Miss Margaret Guido, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Guido of East Kingston, Saturday at 4 p. m., to George J. Bruck, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Bruck, 188 Hasbrouck avenue. The Rev. William Brennan, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore an electric blue gabardine suit with black accessories and carried a prayer book covered with white orchids. Miss Anne Guido, a sister, as maid of honor, wore a beige suit with brown accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of pink sweet peas.

Clayton Bruck was best man for his brother.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate families. Mr. and Mrs. Bruck left for a wedding trip through upstate New York.

Mrs. Holt was graduated from Newburgh Free Academy (1942) and New Paltz State Teachers College (1946) where she was a member of Chionian Sorority, Alpha Sigma Omicron (honorary literary fraternity). She is a teacher at the Red Hook Central School.

Mr. Holt was graduated from Newburgh Free Academy in 1938 and New Paltz State Teachers College in 1942 where he was a member of Delphic Fraternity. He served three years in the army infantry and is teacher in the Junior High School department of the Red Hook Central School.

A brisk sale of tickets for next week's dance was reported at the meeting of New York Gamma Chi, Chapter 2392, Beta Sigma Phi, held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Harper, 224 Fair street Tuesday evening. Complete plans for the first annual spring affair, Tuesday evening at The Barn, were made during the brief business session.

The music for the dance will be furnished by the Barn's orchestra under the direction of Johnny Knapp. Entertainment also will be furnished by the Tucker Sisters who are now at the Barn for a limited engagement.

The dance will commence at 9 o'clock. Those desiring tickets may contact any member of the organization or they may be procured at The Barn.

Following last night's business session, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served.

Margie Sheley, Port Ewen, Is Betrothed

Business Men Discuss Y.W.C.A. for Employed Women with National Board Representative

The problem of how to interest the many young women, variously employed in the plants and business places of Kingston, in the growing recreational facilities offered by the Kingston Y.W.C.A.—and also to secure the interest of the business men and plant owners in the program—was the subject of discussion at a luncheon given at the Y.W.C.A. Tuesday noon.

The business men were the guests of the Young Adult Committee of the organization, headed by Mrs. John Herlihy, who presided. preceding the gathering the guests were shown through the Y.W.C.A.'s new home at 209 Clinton avenue, the former Judge G. D. B. Hasbrouck residence, by Miss Ethel Roberts, executive director. They were greatly pleased and surprised to find so many large and commodious rooms, providing space for the numerous branches of work carried on, with office and other facilities and a large recreation room on the third floor.

The thing noted as lacking was a gymnasium to include a basketball court, and a swimming pool. Comment was made that there was ample room on the property for the erection of a building to provide these greatly needed facilities.

Following luncheon Mrs. Herlihy presented Miss Esther Briesmeister, a staff member of the national board of the Y.W.C.A., who is particularly concerned with the problems and activities of young women in business and industry in the twelve states comprising the Eastern Region.

Radar 'Signposts' Can Be Located In Polar Deserts

U.S. Mt. Olympus, April 9 (UPI)—Radar makes it possible to put "signposts" on the trackless snow deserts of the South Polar continent, the Byrd Antarctic Expedition learned.

In one experiment at Little America, a plane dropped some metallized paper on the Ross ice-shelf plateau. Later another plane using its airborne search radar picked up a strong signal from the paper on its radar screen.

Even though a blizzard or drifting snow covered the paper, it still would be detected by the radar, said Lieut. Robert L. Nichols of Xenia, Ill., airborne electronics officer. The paper probably could be "seen" by radar even if it became covered by 10 to 15 feet of snow, since snow is a poor conductor, he said.

Such markers could be valuable signposts in flat, featureless areas. In exploration, Nichols said, a plane could mark the limits of its flight to be picked up by another plane coming out later to continue on into an unknown area. The paper markers also could be dropped in groups to give planes guide bearings back to their base, or to lead rescue planes to downed airmen.

Survivors of the P.B.M. Mariner which crashed December 30 in east Antarctica laid out radar reflectors, but these were never detected by search planes. The reason has not been explained in dispatches received aboard this ship. However, Nichols said, the reflectors used give a much smaller reflecting surface than the metallized paper, and the search planes may have been too far off to detect them. A smoky fire set by the survivors drew the search plane to them.

A second, incomplete experiment indicated that portable radar beacons, set up parallel on the snowstrip, could be used to guide planes in landings on overcast days when the snow surface and horizon blend indistinguishably in milky whiteness, Nichols said.

The State Department of Agriculture and Markets yesterday announced the date for holding the Ulster County Agricultural Society fair in Kingston on August 20. The date was set along with 47 fairs staged by agricultural and allied societies throughout the state. The fair season of the state will open on July 27 with the Oswego fair and close on October 4 with the Trumansburg fair.

Fair dates in this area are: Albany County Agricultural Society, Altamont, August 25 to 30; Columbia County Agricultural Society, Chatham, August 30 to September 1.

Montgomery County Agricultural Society, Fonda, August 30 to September 3.

Rensselaer County Agricultural and Horticultural Society, Schaghticoke, September 1 to 4.

Saratoga County Agricultural Society, Ballston Spa, August 19 to 23.

Schoharie County, Cobleskill Agricultural Society, Cobleskill, September 15 to 19.

Ulster County Agricultural Society, Kingston, August 20.

Coin Machines Do 500 Million Trade Says M. S. Board

Washington, April 9 (UPI)—Coin-operated machines are selling $500,000,000 worth of cigarettes, candy and drinks a year, the Commerce Department estimated today.

Some retail experts figure the machines will be doing a $3,000,000,000-a-year business by 1957, a department report said.

There were 4,000,000 of them before each manufacture was stopped in wartime to save scarce materials.

Eggs, cream, butter, cheese and other dairy products, fresh meats and fish are some of the perishables which machines are expected to sell soon.

The department said book sales through machines are being tested and phonograph records may be sold in the same way.

The department pointed out that in England, candy, perfume, lipstick, and assorted drugstore-type items are sold by machines wheeled outside at closing time to take care of after-hours customers.

The article said the machines will replace people at some tasks but will create demand for greater production of the goods they sell, thus stimulating employment in other lines.

Financial and Commercial

New York, April 9 (UPI)—The stock market regained a measure of balance today after Tuesday's late dip.

Dealers were nervous from the start and several issues, retreated into new low ground for the year, but industrials developed resistance to further downward pressures. Activity was somewhat above that of recent slow sessions. Price changes were well mixed near the fourth hour.

Commission houses reported many customers stood aside to await possible developments from cabinet discussion of the price situation, while labor disquiet in some sectors and additional effects of the partial shutdown of coal production remained as restraining influences. Dividend news lent support to some individual favorites.

Reaching higher levels were Republic Steel, Youngstown Sheet, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Norfolk & Western, Great Northern Preferred, Eastman Kodak, American Woolen, Pacific Western Oil (at new 1947 high), Kennebec, Western Union "A" and Union Carbide. St. Paul Preferred, and United States Lines climbed in response to dividend declarations. Retreating were Schenectay, Texas Co., Santa Fe, Baltimore & Ohio, American Telephone, J. I. Case, Westinghouse Electric and North American.

Lower in the curb were St. Lawrence Corp., Textron, Fansteel, Niagara Hudson Power, Cities Service and McCord Corp.

Old Graves Discovered

Little Hugh and Graham Causon, playing on a kope six miles from Bulawayo, Southern Rhodesia, found an old Matabelo grave where a native was buried, sitting up and facing east, according to old Matabelo custom. The native must have been 5 feet 9 inches, tall, scientists said. The skull is now in Whitestones School museum.

Phone Pickets Tree a Lineman sive picket activities by striking employees of the Empire State Plant Union, of which William E. McQuade, of Kingston, is the president.

In New York city, Henry Mayer, counsel for the long distance telephone operators, said shortly after his return from Washington early today "I do not understand the reason for the optimistic reports the strike will be settled within 24 hours. They seem entirely groundless."

No Full Settlement

In describing the situation, Mr. Bennett pointed out that the unions representing the operators and business office employees have extended their contracts with the company, and those employed on the job.

The Plant Union has made demands, which, if granted, all employees would increase the cost per telephone of $2 per month.

He refused an offer to extend the contract, and also an offer to arbitrate the basic wage issue," Mr. Burnett charged.

"While a substantial number of plant men in Kingston are out on strike in Kingston," he continued, "the maintenance and repair work is being carried on by those on the job and supervisory people."

Elsewhere in the upstate territory, Mr. Bennett reported that the operators, accounting for 1,000 business office employees, are on the job despite the strike. Plant men in Albany, Troy, and many other localities have refused to join the strike and there have been substantial back-to-work movements during the past two days at Schenectady, Binghamton, Amsterdam, Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Olean, Batavia, Liverpool, Hamburg, Tonawanda, Dunkirk and other places.

Mr. Burnett stated that the question is not whether the ability of the loyal people on the job in Kingston.

42 Operators Are Out

Forty-two of the forty-eight telephone operators who announced yesterday they would honor picket lines in front of the New York Telephone Company building on Broadway, were still out this morning, according to Miss Helen Barry, spokesman for the Upstate Traffic Employers Association, an independent union with which the operators are affiliated.

Miss Barry said she was unable to speak for a number of operators who were scheduled to return to duty late today and this evening.

The operators were not in their picket lines this morning and pickets were reported out in greatly reduced numbers.

Miss Barry said that all operators on duty at the local plant were Kingston women, spiking reports that out-of-town operators had been brought to Kingston to bolster the local staff.

The U.T.E.A. spokesman said yesterday that while the union was not wholly in accord with the action of the operators who decided to stay off duty that their prerogative to respect the picket lines would be honored. The operators, however, are not paid for time lost while observing picket lines.

Kirk Still Is Critical

Morris Kirk, injured in an explosion of dynamite Sunday at his Highland home, was reported still in a serious condition at Vassar Hospital today. His brother, William, who suffered from shock as he stood just outside the kitchen door when the explosion took place in the cellar, attended the funeral services of his sister, Anna, and his mother, Mrs. Rebecca Kirk, yesterday. The mother and sister were fatally injured as they sat at the dinner table in the house when the explosion took place.

Local Death Record

The funeral of Mrs. William Jardine was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the James M. Murphy Funeral Home. Burial was in Montrepose Cemetery. Services were conducted by the Rev. Frank L. Gollnick, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church.

Bearers at the funeral of Evelyn Barringer of 38 Abel street Tuesday morning were Silas Ellsworth, Richard Barringer, George Ellsworth and George Barringer, Jr. Funeral services were held at the W. N. Conner Funeral Home and Holy Cross Church. Interment was in Tongore Cemetery.

Wine Buys A Wife

James Xamba, 30-year-old native, got a wife for three bottles of wine, he testified when charged, in Paarl, South Africa, with abducting a 15-year-old native girl. Xamba went to the girl's parents to tell them she was pregnant. They asked him to pay lobola—a gift to the girl's father in the form of cattle—but he gave her mother three bottles of wine and agreed to pay lobola later.

The girl was willing, but her mother held out for two more bottles of wine. James refused. At the trial, he was acquitted.

Clean Up Glass

The funeral of Joseph Larkin, 50, who died suddenly at his home Monday, will be held Thursday morning at 8:45 o'clock from the James M. Murphy Funeral Home and at St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock, where a Mass of requiem will be offered. Burial will be in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery.

Funeral Services

Funeral services for Mrs. Caroline A. Cranston, widow of the Rev. George M. Cranston, former pastor of the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, will be held this evening at Perrott's Funeral Home, 1 Grand avenue, Newburgh, at 8 o'clock. Burial will be in the Walton Cemetery. Mrs. Cranston, held in high esteem by many who knew her in this city, died Saturday at Fort Myers, Fla.

She was 76 years of age. She had been residing at 8 Gedney Way, Newburgh. The Rev. Mr. Cranston was pastor here nine years.

Mary A. McNells

Mary A. McNells, former resident of Port Ewen, died Tuesday morning. She was well-known in this section and since removing from Port Ewen she had maintained her former residence at that place where she spent the summer months.

Besides her daughter, she is survived by one son, Joseph of New York city. Funeral will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from the James M. Murphy Funeral Home and at the Church of the Presentation in Port Ewen at 9:30 o'clock where a high Mass of requiem will be offered. Burial will be in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery.

Legion Trips Cairo, 50-43; Titular Game Slated Friday

Marlborough Tops High Falls, 39-37;
In 'Y Tournament

A sudden burst of scoring power late in the final quarter enabled the Kingston American Legion basketball team to pull out with a 50 to 43 victory over the Cairo American Legion five at the municipal auditorium Tuesday night which gave the local squad third place in the Ulster-Greene Basketball Tournament.

Trophy Is Awarded

Following the contest the Legion quintet received the third place trophy from Lou Schaefer, tournament director.

The championship of the annual tournament will be settled Friday night in the titular clash between the Dawkins Favorites and the powerful F.W.V. cagers. The Favorites, composed of former high school stars, have piled up an imposing record in the tournament and will go into the game as favorites. The game is slated for 9 o'clock starting time.

Marlborough American Legion, coming back strong after trailing in the first half, downed the High Falls Firemen in a close see-saw battle in the other game last night by the score of 39 to 37.

Cairo, leading at the half by 24-18 and at the end of the third can to by 34-32, suddenly went all-out on the offensive last night but its attack backfired as the local quintet intercepted a couple of passes and turned them into scoring plays.

Kingston was sparked by Andy Murphy, former high school star and "Finky" McElrath. Murphy tossed in 16 points while McElrath gleaned 11. C. Spencer amassed 10 for the losing Cairo five.

Marlborough's "squeaker" victory over High Falls Tuesday shoved that club into a playoff for the consolation trophy with the New Paltz American Legion in another Friday night encounter. The game is slated to start at 7:45 followed by the big game between Dawkins Favorites and the Vets.

High Falls led by 17 to 14 at the half last night but just couldn't hold onto its slim lead for the balance of the game. It was a close affair right up to the finish. Purdy, guard for Marlborough, tossed in 10 markers for the winners. Williams and H. Schoonmaker paced the losers with 10 each.

The scores:

Kingston Legion (50) — T. Albany 4-1-9, Murphy 8-0-16, Maines 4-0-8, Amato 3-0-6, McElrath 5-1-11. Totals 24-25-50. Cairo American Legion (43) — F. Engleman 3-1-7, G. Spencer 4-1-9, C. Spencer 5-0-10, Gustavsen 1-2-4, Swilpa 0-0-0, Duncan 4-0-8, W. Engleman 2-1-5. Totals 19-5-43.

Marlboro (39) — Valintino 3-0-6, Walsh 1-0-2, Biasini 4-1-9, Casey 2-2-6, Purdy 4-2-10, Pagentine 2-2-6, Pascali 0-0-0. Totals 16-7-39. High Falls Firemen (37) — Williams 5-0-10, McCord 2-0-4, H. CHARLIE TIANO

A PERFECT TRIBUTE: Rose Schatzel may not win the W.I.B.C. Individual Sweepstakes title tomorrow night in the glaring spotlight of the Fanatorium Recreation in Grand Rapids, but Monday night in a colorful setting at Bob Teetsel's Barn she achieved a personal milestone that few persons ever experience in a lifetime—a perfect tribute from her townsfolk.

The testimonial honoring the brilliant young tenpin star, who has earned glory for herself and tremendous publicity for the community was made possible because of the high esteem she commands among the sports fans of the city. The motivating force was, of course, the Kingston Athletic Association. The dinner was another 14-karat sparkler for Tommy Davitt's organization. They can feel justifiably proud of maintaining the high standard of their promotions.

Not a small amount of the credit belongs to men like Palmer Brodhead, Chris Rienzo, Sam Moss, Joe Messinger and other indefatigable cohorts of President Tom Davitt. But for conflict with the traditional Easter Ball date the attendance would have been considerably greater. Yet in spite of the conflict in dates, these hustling, hard-working ticket committee did another swell job. When a real task has to be accomplished, it's nice to have them on your side.

BANQUET TIDBITS: Jimmy Powers proved a forceful, natural speaker. . . . He was really warming up near the end when his topic was, naturally, "El Cheapo" Rickey. . . . Powers admits he likes to rib Rickey but swears by him as an executive. . . . "I admire 'El Cheapo's' ability to get things done," Powers said. "I just don't like his methods."

The ruddy faced, Florida-tanned Irishman who makes tin horns and penny pinchers squeal with one stroke of his typewriters is a strong exponent of vitamins. . . . He has a special brand and recommends them to Big Ed Weaver, the K.H.S. basketball captain. Dot Flemings, Evelyn Moore, Betty Boyce and Charlotte Lapine, of Kaye Sportswear, and absolutely insisted that Rose Schatzel try some. He even gave specific instructions as to the name, dosage and the trial period.

OTHER POWERS RAMBLINGS: The calibre of major league baseball has deteriorated badly in recent years. . . . Young college stars or semi-pro and amateur prospects loathe the long sweat-shop apprenticeship in the minors. . . . He cited Joe Tepsic of the Brooklyn Dodgers as an example. . . . Tepsic received $17,000 bonus for signing a Brooklyn contract. . . . He claims he was signed to a "major league" contract and never got a real chance to prove his worth. . . . When the Dodgers tried to farm him out for season, he quit and took the $17,000 with him.

Powers thinks Dixie Walker is the logical successor to Leo Durocher, whom he rates the top manager in baseball today. . . . He thinks Durocher's absence from the Dodger training camp for extended periods due to a variety of circumstances has had its effect on the players. . . . They lack the fire and team spirit of yesteryear. . . . Picks Ted Williams as the greatest hitter in baseball with Stan Musial in the No. 2 spot. . . . Says major league salaries are still pathetic. . . . The big fellows like Greenberg, Feller and Newhouser pull down big salaries, but the average major leaguer who has a life expectancy of six years, averages around $6500. . . . Is anxious to see a return match between Rose Schatzel and Mickey Michaels. . . . Confidentially would like to see Michaels win and then have a big buildup for the rubber duel.

Declined to comment on the progress of his bowling career. . . . Apparently he has been beaten by Al Cirillo which represents a new low. . . . Cirillo, former vaudeville hoofer and emcee, was the life of the party with his endless stream of gags. . . . Tom Davitt and Rose Schatzel delivered short impressive speeches. . . . The letter addressed to Mrs. Schatzel by the Kingston Women's Bowling Association was heart-warming, a splendid tribute to a great bowler. . . . Everybody thought it was a great show. . . . Powers said he was impressed by the homely touch of the proceedings, the friendliness exhibited by everyone. . . . "This is a nice little town" he said, "and I'm coming back again."

Final statistics in the Hercules League credit Bob Hanley with high average of 187 in 83 games. Joe Dulin was runnerup with 179, while Les Hotaling and "Chick" Maurer each had 171. Justin Beck made the top five with 169. Clustered at 168 were J. McGrath, Jack Martin, Charlie Horne and J. Reis.

Hanley's 657 series was high in the 1st Division while Les Hotaling and Justin Beck tied for high single with 256. Hotaling won on the rolloff for the K.B.A. medal. R. Walker's 553 was tops in the 2nd Division, with Irving Etchell's 235 leading the solo department. Maintenance posted 2825 and 1013 for seasonal records.

15,750 Trout Are Planted in Ulster County, Snell Says

New York, April 8 (AP) — Pauline Betz and Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Cooke, present and former national women's tennis champions, were suspended from further amateur competition today by the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association, which questioned their status in the face of plans for a professional tour.

The U.S.L.T.A. said the action was taken on the recommendation of the rules committee, pending final action by the executive committee, because of a question of their amateur status as the result of a letter sent to clubs here and abroad by Elwood Cooke of "Sports Tours" soliciting professional tennis engagements for Miss Betz and Mrs. Cooke.

Miss Betz, who holds the U. S. and Wimbledon turf court singles titles as well as the national indoor championship, is now in Monte Carlo after competing in several European tournaments.

Local Ring Card Slated Next Week

Boxing fans who patronize B'nai B'rith bouts at the municipal auditorium must wait another week for the next card on account of the Jewish holidays.

The program of ring duels originally scheduled for tomorrow night has been moved over to Thursday, April 17, on account of the Passover feast, duration of which covers the regular boxing date.

Dr. Saul Goldfarb, B'nai B'rith's chairman of the sport, today said he had no announcement to make regarding next week's card. He told a reporter, "We're waiting to hear from Ben Becker on a special Golden Gloves arrangement of matches. The director of bouts for B'nai B'rith is in Boston attending the national tournament.

There will be no admission charged but a collection will be taken for the Cancer fund drive.

Bowling fans are assured of one of the topflight attractions of the season. The Martha keglettes are powered by Marty Christian, the match game champion of the Dorpian city. The upstarts shot a 2600 series to snap the Kaye streak at 12 straight.

They lack the fire and team spirit of yesteryear.

Kaye Sportswear will be without the services of their ace, Rose Schatzel, who will be in Grand Rapids. The local match game squad will use Dot Flemings, Evelyn Moore, Charlotte Lapine, Betty Boyce and Marge Jansen.

The Jones Dairy squad, newly crowned Hudson Valley League champions, go with Bob Hanley, Fred Rice, Charlie Tiano, Harold Ken Burkhardt are the likely Red Bird starters.

Chicago, April 9 (AP)—Outfielder Bill Nicholson of the Chicago Cubs, weighing 200 pounds, somewhat lighter than last season, has arrived here for treatment of his injured leg. The Cubs' physician, after checking Nick thoroughly, said, "he has nothing more than a pulled muscle in his right leg which a little rest and heat will take care of—he will be ready for the opener with Pittsburgh Tuesday."

Kansas City, April 9 (AP)—Chicago White Sox Manager Ted Lyons trimmed his squad further today by optioning Bill Evans, promising righthander, to Little Rock of the Southern Association.

Dallas, Texas, April 9 (AP)—The world champion St. Louis Cardinals clash with the Dallas Rebels of the Texas League again today and hope to avenge yesterday's 3-1 setback at the Rebels' hands. Right-handers Johnny Beazley and Ken Burkhardt are the likely Red Bird starters.

Hickory, N. C., April 9 (AP)—The injury jinx that has plagued the New York Giants this spring, struck again yesterday when rookie outfielder Whitey Lockman suffered a broken bone about eight inches below his knee and a reverse dislocation of the ankle in a game against Cleveland at Sheffield Field. Ala. Lockman is expected to be out of action for three months.

New York, April 9 (AP)—The Yankees were scheduled for light workout today at Yankee Stadium in preparation for their week-end series with Brooklyn at Ebbets Field. The Yanks arrived home following their 7-3 conquest of Baltimore in the Maryland city yesterday.

Russano Cracks 582 in Rec Loop

Fred Russano supplied the fire-works in the Central Rec League encounters Tuesday night as he emerged with the number one triple with his 582. Russano also blasted a 216 singleton.

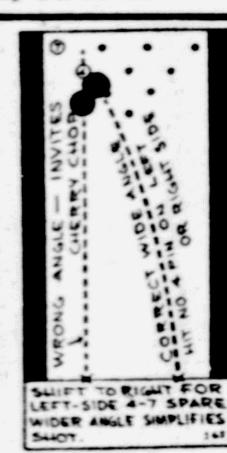

Gundagnola, highlighting his 580, just two pins short of Russano's series, walked off with single honors with a 220 effort.

Other noteworthy efforts were turned in by F. Spada who hit 207-575, Bob Vincent 216-566, Davis 205-558, Jack Martin 201-544, Stan Winne 200-528 and Ed Auchmoody 201-516.

Dolson's 531 Tops Emerick's League

Evelyn Dolson again highlighted the Emerick Ladies' League matches at the Central Rec alleys Tuesday night with the number one triple score of 531. Evelyn topped her triple with a 191 single.

R. Rhymier divided honors with Mrs. Dolson as she pounded out a 207 single for a 508 triple. M. Mackay, although finishing under the coveted 500 mark, smashed a 205 singleton.</

Better BowlingTHE BABE'S STILL KING

SHIFT FOR SPARES: Shifting to proper angles for spare shooting is important and not easy. Beginners naturally have trouble adjusting themselves—their body position—for various spare angles, especially the OUTSIDE pins. But I see advanced bowlers, as well, who somehow don't seem to appreciate the advantage of getting properly set for end shots.

On outside pins—Nos. 6-10 on the right and 4-7 on the left—some of our better bowlers, averaging around 200, persist in shifting to the left side of the alley for the 4-7 spare and to the right for the 6-10, instead of using as wide an angle ACROSS ALLEY as possible.

The illustration shows the proper direction for shooting left-end pins, and with a high scoring value on spares the beginner should immediately adopt the prescribed method. The shift to the RIGHT, near the gutter, for the 4-7 spare makes a bigger target of the pins. From this angle it is possible to hit the pins on EITHER side. That goes as well for the No. 7 pin alone—with what the gutter on its left side. Shooting the 4-7 spare from the LEFT side, which is usually skidded little, also invites a cherry chop—picking the 4 off the 7.

In shooting any spare, the thing to remember is to follow through fully, so that the arm is extended in a STRAIGHT LINE with the hand in position as if to reach for the pin or pins being shot at.

Former 'Y' Secretary Will Address Bowlers

Clarence Schoonmaker, former general secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., will be the principal speaker at the Y. M. C. A.'s annual banquet on Monday, April 21, at the "Y" auditorium.

Mr. Schoonmaker served as Kingston secretary before George Sisson, who was followed by George Goodfellow and at present, But Tandy.

Both divisions of the Y Mercantile League and the Church Federation circuit will combine for the dinner. The dinner will be served by the women's auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. Tickets can be purchased at the main desk at the Y or from Harry Gray at the bowling alleys.

Frankie Bruno Shoots 484 High in Freeman League

Team No. 4 blanked No. 1 and No. 2 won a split decision over No. 3 in Monday night's bracket of Freeman Bowling League matches on the Y drives.

Frankie Bruno captured individual triple scoring honors with 484. Other highs were Warren Simmons' 466, John Dittus 437, and Art Shleightner's 387.

Only Two Are Sure

New York, April 9 (AP)—After four days of preliminary prancing, Stepfather and Better Value are the only gallopers already sure of seats on the Kentucky Derby choo-choo from these parts, but Saturday some of the fanciest of the glamour boys step up for their reservations. Better Value just won his train ticket with his hard-driving nose decision at mile-and-a-sixteenth Monday at Jamaica. Stepfather practically got his lower berth yesterday with a sizzling fourth in the six-furlong experimental handicap in which Greentree's highly-touted Blue Border was a mere fifth, causing no end of consternation among the Derby crystal ball gazers.

Stand Is Erected

A stand designed for the sale of refreshments is being constructed on one side of the former Bethany Chapel, Washington avenue and Joy's Lane, which is now owned by Jack Shore, owner of a North Front street gas station and Albert C. Flick, 105 Main street. The temporary structure is 110 feet long, 20 feet wide and 10 feet high.

Money Scandal Seen

Frenchmen predict sensational disclosures believed to concern illegal traffic in gold and foreign currencies, following the arrest of a dozen bank officials in Paris, after a secret raid by detectives. They believe that one of the city's most important banks and leading figures in the French financial world may be involved.

Marshall Wants

isters should accept the principle that the resources of the Ruhr and Silesia must fit into the whole European economy so that neither Germany nor Poland should have exclusive control. The exact details should not be laid down as hard and fast rules, but should be administered by a suitable international agency, perhaps such as the European Economic Commission.

2. The United States is willing to agree to French demands for the Saar, but within present limits and thus without the enlargement of the area which France would control.

Poland, German Rights

3. German areas which Poland now is "administering" under the Potsdam Agreement, including East Prussia, Upper Silesia and Northeast Pomerania should be given fully to Poland, but the agricultural lands immediately east of the Oder and the Neisse river lines should be in some degree, at least, restored to Germany, to give Germany more balance in her economy.

4. The Ruhr and the Rhineland, for which the French have been demanding a separate regime, should be retained in Germany, but with provision, as explained, for some more or less permanent international administration or supervision of the resources.

5. Other German national rectifications requested by the smaller nations should be fully studied. Probably some will be agreed to.

There was some talk of an inquiry into the Polish administration of the areas snatched from Germany under the Potsdam declaration. However, American advisers take the line that this should be done on the initiative of or under the authority of the Council of Foreign Ministers, rather than the United Nations.

Main Objective

In fact, while some parts of the American program, if accepted, probably would tie in with U.N. agencies in the economic field, the main objective is said to be concerned with local rather than broad operations such as might be undertaken by the U.N.

The Russians were expected to oppose revision of Poland's western frontier as it would stand under permanent adoption of the administrative area outlined at Potsdam.

In today's session of the council's deputies for Germany, it was agreed that states given full access to the forthcoming German peace conference also should have the right to sit in on the foreign ministers' hearings whenever one of their number was formally presented.

The British and Americans acclaimed the acceptance of this by the Russians as establishing an open policy for the hearings.

In turn, the Russians won acceptance of a paragraph which the Americans said they did not understand clearly. It seemed to open the way for any other states—such as Finland and Hungary—to present their views to the council on specific issues, when invited.

Dennis Is Cited

Washington, April 9 (AP)—The House Committee on Un-American Activities voted unanimously today to cite Eugene Dennis, Communist party secretary, for contempt after he failed to respond to a subpoena.

Harvey Clearwater, a student and officer of the senior class, spoke and paid a fine tribute to Mr. Cunningham on behalf of the student body of the school. When the Cunningham matter first broke in the village, a student body walked out of school in protest over the dismissal of Mr. Cunningham and for a time paraded through the streets of the village, later returning to classes when Mr. Cunningham met the students downtown and requested that they return to classes.

Mrs. Basil Ellison, a member of the committee, also spoke telling her version of what the dismissal means to the community.

Several others spoke from the floor but there was no cross examination of the speakers by any opposition which may have been represented at the meeting.

Disappointment Expressed

A number of those present expressed themselves after the meeting as being "disappointed that there was no controversy and no fireworks." Several present said they had gone to the meeting for "entertainment" expecting that there would be a heated discussion. No such situation developed and the meeting was orderly and devoted to the purpose of paying tribute to Mr. Cunningham and his ability as a school officer and principal. The trustees were criticised by speakers for failing to tell the people why they had acted in dismissing Mr. Cunningham and for later declining to tell what reasons backed their action.

The attitude of the Board of Education has been that the matter is a closed book and that through engagement of a new principal the Cunningham matter closed.

Following the open meeting at which those present were given an opportunity to speak, a business session was called and three resolutions were offered.

1. That a permanent organization be formed for the purpose of carrying on the fight for Cunningham to the finish.

2. That a telegram be sent the State Education Commissioner protesting the action of the Central School Board in the Cunningham case.

3. That a petition be circulated throughout the district to obtain signatures of everyone favoring Cunningham and that all petitions be notarized.

He declined to talk to newsmen by phone, but his assistants said Rickey probably would have something to say later in the day and might announce a manager to take Durocher's place this season.

The leading candidate appeared to be Ray Blades, Dodger coach, though there was certain to be strong support for Dixie Walker, the club's veteran outfielder.

Rickey Is Stunned

New York, April 9 (AP)—President Branch Rickey of the Brooklyn Dodgers apparently was too stunned at notification of Leo Durocher's suspension as manager to react to the news.

Van Kleeck Fined, Jail Sentence Is Suspended Today

Samuel Van Kleeck, Jr., of 146 Main street, was fined $50 and handed a 30-day suspended jail sentence in city court this morning when he pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct.

Van Kleeck was arrested by the Trailway Bus Line management for creating a disturbance at the bus terminal on Pine Grove avenue on April 1. The complaint alleged that young Van Kleeck used indecent and profane language in the presence of several bus riders.

Van Kleeck was not represented by counsel when he appeared before City Judge Matthew Cahill. He paid the $50 fine but Judge Cahill suspended the jail sentence, handing Van Kleeck's good behavior.

"CAUGHT SHORT"
ON YOUR CHECKING BALANCE

Yes, it's embarrassing—and it doesn't make a good impression — to be "caught short" and not have enough funds in your checking account to write the check you want to write.

Maintaining an ample balance at all times is good business practice. Then you are always prepared for any emergency which may arise or any opportunity to make a profit by having ready cash in your checking account.

It pays in many ways to keep your checking balance above what you consider the "safety level."

WHAT'S THE MOST VITAL THING ADVERTISING DOES FOR YOU?

- ★ BRINGS INFORMATION TO MAKE SHOPPING EASY.
- ★ GIVES YOU BETTER GOODS FOR LESS MONEY.
- ★ RAISES STANDARD OF LIVING.
- ★ MAKES JOBS MORE SECURE.
- ★ ENTERTAINS AND AMUSES.

What Others Say:

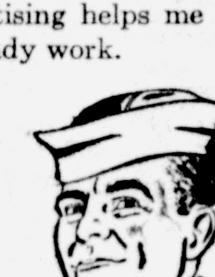

LABORER—There are no layoffs when things are busy. A rush means overtime for me. So when advertising sells goods for my firm, I get more in my pay envelope.

HOUSEWIFE—It's a perfect circle. When advertising makes us women go to the store to buy, westimulates business. And it's when business is good that our husbands are secure in their jobs. So let's be grateful for advertising.

EXPRESSMAN—My job depends on goods being shipped. And the main reason goods are shipped is because they are sold. So by selling goods, advertising helps me be sure of steady work.

SAILOR—A ship's business is to transport goods. Always there has to be a buyer—or we tie up. So advertising to sell goods is important in giving sailors steady work and a chance to get ahead.

cisively defeated at a meeting held at the Gardiner schoolhouse Monday evening. The vote showed but 20 of those present favoring the move to do away with the school, while 82 wanted it maintained.

The meeting had been called by the Board of Education of the New Paltz Central School District on petition of about 20 residents of the Gardiner District who favored closing the school.

Theodore Wright presided at the meeting, with Attorney Peter H. H. of New Paltz representing the board of education of the Central School District. John Moran of Gardiner is the district member of the board.

Following the meeting there was some discussion of the need for improvements to the Gardiner school property. It was brought out that 18 years ago when Gardiner went into the Central School District various improvements and betterments had been promised, but that little if anything had been done toward making good on the promises.

The school has an attendance of about 30 pupils, under direction of two teachers.

Cimillo Says Money Trouble Back of Trip

New York, April 9 (UPI)—It was money trouble, says bus driver William Cimillo, who prompted him to head for Florida in a new $18,000 bus on March 28 instead of taking it on its usual route in the Bronx.

Brought back from Hollywood, Fla., to face a grand larceny charge here, the 27-year-old driver told his troubles to reporters after his release on $1,000 bail yesterday.

"I had a little trouble financially and I wanted to get away and go somewhere to think it over quietly," Cimillo explained.

He confirmed a statement by Bronx Assistant District Attorney Edward Breslin that he was pressed by more than $2,000 in debts.

"I had no intention of stealing the bus," Cimillo said. "I just went for a joyride."

While he said he "really enjoyed the trip down—no headaches," Cimillo was less enthusiastic about the return trip. Coming home, he had for company: Two detectives, another prisoner they were returning from Florida, and a bus company mechanic, who did the driving.

MUSICIAN ACCIDENTALLY SHOT Minneapolis, April 9 (UPI)—A bullet accidentally discharged during a marksmanship exhibition killed a member of the orchestra at the Northwest Sportsmen's Show here last night. Curtis Erickson, 27, a bass viol player, died on route to a hospital of the bullet wound just above his heart. Dr. Russell R. Heim, county coroner, said the pistol in the left hand of William Johnson was discharged when he lunged to catch his wife, Frances, as she slipped in disengaging herself after having fired at targets from between Johnson's legs while suspended from his neck by her legs.

THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME

(Registered U. S. Patent Office) By Jimmy Hall,

A sweet young thing who had been working in a factory during war-time greeted a friend with a sigh of relief. "I certainly feel better since I saw that doctor," she confided. "What did he do for you?" asked the other. "Do you remember those hard lumps in my arms that I was worried about?" said the first. "Well, he looked at them and told me that they were just muscles."

An insurance company wrote out a $1,000 life policy in the name of one Samuel Johnson. Premiums were paid promptly for a few years, but suddenly stopped. After sending a few delinquent notices, the company received this reply:

"Dear Sirs: Please excuse us as we can't pay any more premiums on Sam, he died last May. Yours truly, Mrs. S. Johnson."

Doris thought she would marry Jack until she found out how much he spent at the tailors."

"Well?"

"Then she decided to marry the tailor."

Mother: I suppose my little man was very good at the party, just as I told you him to be. You didn't ask for anything twice at the table, did you?

Little Man: No, I didn't. I asked once and they didn't hear me — so I helped myself.

A pretty girl entered a music shop and went to the counter where a new clerk was sorting out sheet music. "Pardon me," she said, "but have you 'kissed Me in the Park One Night?'" The clerk looked at her startled and blushed. "Sorry, Miss," he stammered. "But it must have been the clerk at the other counter. I've only been here a week."

The clerks were talking about a former fellow air-corps student who had been transferred. "Why do you suppose he ever went into the air service anyway?" asked one. "That's easy," responded one of the ground crew. "He was no earthly good."

A city man who had enjoyed his stay on a certain farm the previous summer, wrote to ask the farmer if he might have the same room again this year, then added: "But I'd appreciate it if you're more that pig-pen from where it was under my window, as the noise bothered me." The farmer wrote in reply: "Keeping the same room for you. And don't let the pigpen bother you, because we ain't had no hogs on this farm since you left last year."

Girl Visitors: Captain, did you ever see a sea serpent?

Captain: No, I hasn't. I hasn't never stayed long enough on shore too see one.

Farmer: An' how's Lawyer Jones doin' Doctor?

Doctor: Poor fellow! He's lying at death's door.

Farmer: That's grit for ye-death's door, and still lying.

When you reach the point where you think the night was made for sleeping purposes your fun is about over.

Grocer: What did the doctor say about you?

Gumby: He said I was sound as a dollar.

Grocer: Was that all?

Gumby: No. Then he sent me a bill for $5.

Keep plugging and you'll get by. The hen that lays an egg a day never has anything to fear from the farmer.

Wings Over Jordan
Choir to Sing Here

REV. G. T. SETTLE

"Wings Over Jordan," choir will be presented in a concert at Kingston High School auditorium Monday, April 28, under the auspices of the New Central Baptist Church. The choir was originated and is directed by the Rev. Glynn T. Settle.

It is heard Sunday mornings over the Columbia Broadcasting System network from 11:05 to 11:30 o'clock. During its tour last year it visited 150 cities throughout the Eastern, Southern and mid-western states. Just prior to the tour the choir was on a 10-month U.S.O. overseas tour.

Two concerts are planned for the Kingston appearances. A concert at which special prices will be set for children will be held in the afternoon and another concert will be given in the evening.

Press reviews praise the choir. The Cincinnati Times Star reported "a truly great choir . . . any one who is at all moved by music, which reaches into the infinite, must certainly never miss an opportunity to hear this great choir. It has an on-pitch perfectly clear diction . . . an uncommon insight into the pure essence of music . . . This choir is to American music what the Don Cossack choirs are to Russian native music."

Ulster Garden Club

Opened Year Tuesday

Ulster Garden Club opened its season Tuesday afternoon with a meeting at the home of Mrs. G. Wallace Codwise, 10 Pearl street, Mrs. G. V. D. Hutton, president, presided at the meeting.

Plans for the year's program were announced. The club will resume its customary two meetings a month. During the war years the group had met but once a month.

Much interest was shown in competition for the awards offered by Edward Cuykendall and Mr. Hutton for the best garden project and flower arrangements of the year.

Following the meeting a social hour was held.

George Long Marries
Jean Kelly Sunday
In Church Rectory

The marriage of Miss Jean Elizabeth Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kelly, 133 Ten Broeck avenue, to George Francis Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Long, 52 Van Buren street, was performed in a double ring ceremony at the rectory of St. Joseph's Church, Easter Sunday at 2 o'clock. The Rev. John D. Simmons officiated.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white faille gown with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves, ruffled back terminating in a train. Her Juliet cap caught a veil of impeded Swiss illusion. She carried cula lilies bound with sweet pea streamers.

Miss Gloria Lopez, step-sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was made of green taffeta and she wore mitts of lace, half hat of American beauty roses and carried an arm bouquet of the same flowers with white streamers. Miss Evelyn Long, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaid, wore a pink net gown with American beauty roses arranged in a half hat, and pink lace mitts. She also carried an arm bouquet of roses.

Joseph Long was his brother's best man.

A reception for 90 guests was held at the Rose Marie Cabins. Guests attended from Connecticut and Newburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Long left for a wedding trip to New York city. The bride wore a gingham suit with matching hat and red accessories. They will leave at 52 Van Buren street.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Kingston High School. Mrs. Long is employed at the Fuller Shirt Co., Inc. Mr. Long is an army veteran and is employed at the U. S. Lace Curtain Mills.

Teresa Rua Bride
Of Vincent Legregni
On Easter Sunday

Miss Teresa Rua, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rua of East Kingston was married Easter Sunday at 2:30 p. m. to Vincent Legregni, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Legregni of Rochelle Park, N. J. The double ring ceremony was performed at St. Colman's Church by the Rev. William Brennan.

Candles, Easter flowers and palms decorated the church. Martin Kelly, accompanied by Miss Margaret Volkner at the organ, sang "Avim Maria."

The bride was escorted by her father. Her gown of heavy damask was fashioned with long pointed sleeves edged with beads, off-shoulder neckline with wide turn back yoke effect trimmed with beads, draped pillow sides, cocktail front and simulated bustle with long train. Her scalloped fingertip veil was attached to a regal crown trimmed with beads. She carried a bouquet of five orchids.

Miss Marie Rua was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a gown of yellow faille trimmed with sheer net and lace. Her headdress was a yellow faille crown and she carried American Beauty roses.

Salvatore Blunda was best man for the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception for the immediate family was held at the Penguin, M.

and Mrs. Legregni left for a wedding trip through northern New York. For traveling the bride chose a plum color suit with hat to match, beige topper, orchid corsage. Upon their return they will make their home at 3 Bal avenue, East Paterson, N. J.

Poughkeepsie Couple
Wed in Woodstock

Miss Lillian Seal and Dorlan I. Eggleston of Poughkeepsie were married by the Rev. Harvey J. Todd, pastor of the Woodstock Dutch Reformed Church Saturday at 2 p. m. in the church parsonage. Easter lilies and palms were used for decorations.

The bride wore a powder blue silk crepe dress with insets of lace, a pink halo hat of maline with pink roses; and a corsage of pink carnellias and lilies of the valley. Her attendant, Mrs. Ivan Mallow, a cousin, wore a gown of dust rose silk crepe with matching hat and a corsage of pink rosebud and sweet peas. Mr. Mallow was best man.

Following the ceremony the bridal party had dinner at Schenck's Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Eighmie left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. They will make their home in Poughkeepsie.

Mrs. Eighmie, a descendant of early settlers of Woodstock, is former court stenographer in Poughkeepsie. Mr. Eighmie is a chiropractor.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Bailey 154 Spring street, announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Mary E. Bailey, to John Arold, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Arold, 411 Hasbrouck avenue. N. Y. date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. Arold is a Marine Corps veteran having served three and a half years, two and a half a which were overseas.

Handwritten Announcements

Dear Mrs. Post: May we write announcements of our marriage to send to those who live out of town? Our list is not long enough to have them engraved and yet several of those on my fiance's list are strangers to me and I thought it might be easier to follow the formal wording when writing by hand. We are both in our upper twenties and will announce the marriage ourselves.

Answer: Your suggestion is entirely proper.

Cocktail parties are very popular. How to send out the invitations and what to serve is some of the information given in Mrs. Post's booklet, "Serving Cocktails." To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in cash and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her care of The Kingston Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

Legion Trips Cairo, 50-43; Titular Game Slated Friday

Marlborough Tops High Falls, 39-37;
In 'Y' Tournament

A sudden burst of scoring power late in the final quarter enabled the Kingston American Legion basketball team to pull out with a 50 to 43 victory over the Canoe Arctic Legion five at the municipal auditorium Tuesday night which gave the local squad third place in the Ulster-Greene Basketball Tournament.

Trophy Is Awarded

Following the contest the Legion quarte received the third place trophy from Lou Schaefer, tournament director.

The championship of the annual tournament will be settled Friday night in the titanic clash between the Dawkins Favorites and the powerful V. F. W. eagles. The Favorites, composed of former high school stars have piled up an imposing record in the tournament and will go into the game as favorites. The game is slated for 9 o'clock starting time.

Marlborough American Legion, coming back strong after trailing in the first half downed the High Falls Entomps in a close score battle in the other game last night by the score of 39 to 37.

Cairo leading at the half by 24-18 and at the end of the third quarter by 33-32, suddenly went all-out on the offensive last night but its attack backfired as the local quintet intercepted a couple of passes and turned them into scoring plays.

Kingston was sparked by Andy Murphy, former high school star, and "Finky" McFarland. Murphy tased in 16 points while McFarland gleaned 11. C. Spencer amusied 10 for the losing Cairo five.

Marlborough's "squeaker" victory over High Falls Tuesday shoved that club into a playoff for the consolation trophy with the New Paltz American Legion in another Friday night encounter. The game is slated to start at 7:45 followed by the big game between Dawkins Favorites and the Vets.

The half was led by 17 to 14. The half last night, but just couldn't hold onto it long enough for the balance of the game. It was a close affair right up to the finish.

Finally, guard for Marlborough, through 10 markers for the winners, Williams and H. Schonmaker made the losers with 10 each.

The scores:

Kingston Legion (50) — T. A. Dunn 1-1-0, Murphy 8-0-16, Murray 4-6-8, Attato 3-0-6, McFarland 5-1-1. Totals 21-2-50.

Cairo American Legion (43) — F. Engleman 3-1-7, G. Spencer 4-1-9, C. Spencer 5-0-10, G. Tavassan 1-2-1, Swift 0-0-0. Dunn 4-6-8, W. Engleman 2-1-5. Totals 19-5-43.

Marlborough (39) — Valentine 3-0-6, Walsh 10-2, Busia 4-1-9, Casey 2-2-6, Purdy 1-2-10, Parentine 2-2-6, Pasci 0-0-0. Totals 16-7-39.

High Falls Firemen (37) — Williams 5-6-10, McCarron 2-0-4, II. Schoonmaker 5-0-11, D. Schonmaker 1-1-6. Sutton 6-0-9, Popple 1-0-2, Berger 6-0-0, Kelder 2-1-5. Totals 16-5-37.

Vince Linell and "Bing" Van Etten handled the referee duties during both contests.

A PERFECT TRIBUTE: Rose Schatzel may not win the W.L.B.C. Individual Sweepstakes title tomorrow night in the glancing spotlight of the Paragonium Recreation in Grand Rapids, but Monday night in a colorful setting at Bob Teetsel's Barn she achieved a personal milestone that few persons ever experience in a lifetime—a perfect tribute from her town-folk.

The testimonial honoring the brilliant young tenpin star, who has earned glory for herself and tremendous publicity for the community was made possible because of the high esteem she commands among the sports fans of the city. The motivating force was, of course, the Kingston Athletic Association. The dinner was another 14-karat sparkler for Tommy Davitt's organization. They can feel justifiably proud of maintaining the high standard of their promotions.

Not a small amount of the credit belongs to men like Palmer Brodhead, Chris Renzo, Sam Moss, Joe Messinger and other indefatigable cohorts of President Tom Davitt. But for conflict with the traditional Easter Ball date the attendance would have been considerably greater. Yet in spite of the conflict in dates, these hustling, hard-working ticket committee men did another swell job. When a real task has to be accomplished, it's nice to have them on your side.

BANQUET TIDBITS: Jimmy Powers proved a forceful, natural speaker. . . . He was really warming up near the end when his topic was, naturally, "El Cheapo" Rieley. . . . Powers admits he likes to rib Rieley but swears by him as an executive. . . . "I admire 'El Cheapo's' ability to get things done," Powers said. "I just don't like his methods."

The ruddy faced, Florida-tanned Irishman who makes tin horns and penny whistles squeal with one stroke of his typewriters is a strong exponent of vitamins. . . . He has a special brand and recommended them to Big Ed Weaver, the K.H.S. basketball captain, Dot Flemings, Evelyn Moore, Betty Boyce and Charlotte Lapine, of Kaye Sportwear, and absolutely insisted that Rose Schatzel try some. He even gave specific instructions as to the name, dosage and the trial period.

OTHER POWERS RAMBLINGS: The calibre of major league baseball has deteriorated badly in recent years. . . . Young college stars or semi-pro and amateur prospects loathe the long sweat-shop apprenticeship in the minors. . . . He cited Joe Tepic of the Brooklyn Dodgers as an example. . . . Tepic received $17,500 bonus for signing a Brooklyn contract. . . . He claims he was signed to a "major league" contract and never got a real chance to prove his worth. . . . When the Dodgers tried to farm him out for a season, he quit and took the $17,000 with him.

Powers thinks Dixie Walker is the logical successor to Leo Durocher, whom he rates the top manager in baseball today. . . . He thinks Durocher's absence from the Dodger training camp for extended periods due to a variety of circumstances has had its effect on The Bums. . . . They lack the fire and team spirit of yesteryear. . . . Picks Ted Williams as the greatest hitter in baseball with Stan Musial in the No. 2 spot. . . . Says major league salaries are still pathetic. . . . "The big it follows like Greenberg, Feller and Newhouse will pull down big salaries, but the average major leaguer who has a life expectancy of six years, averages around $6500." . . . Is anxious to see a return match between Rose Schatzel and Mickey Michaels. . . . Confidentially would like to see Michaels win and then have a big buildup for the rubber duel.

Declined to comment on the progress of his bowling career. . . . Apparently he has been beaten by Al Cirillo which represents a new low. . . . Cirillo, former vaudeville hoofer and emcee, was the life of the party with his endless stream of gags. . . . Tom Davitt and Rose Schatzel delivered short impressive speeches. . . . The letter addressed to Mrs. Schatzel by the Kingston Women's Bowling Association was heart-warming, a splendid tribute to a great bowler. . . . Everybody thought it was a great show. . . . Powers said he was impressed by the homesy touch of the proceedings, the friendliness exhibited by everyone. . . . "This is a nice little town," he said, "and I'm coming back again."

Final statistics in the Hercules League credit Bob Hanley with an average of 187 in 83 games. Joe Dulin was runner-up with 179, while Les Hofstaling and "Chick" Mauret each had 171. Justin Beck made the top five with 169. Clustered at 168 were J. McGrath, Jack Matten, Charlie Horne and J. Reis.

Hanley's 657 series was high in the 1st Division while Les Hofstaling and Justin Beck tied for high single with 256. Hofstaling won on the roll-off for the K.B.A. mark. R. Walker's 553 was tops in the 2nd Division, with Irving Eichell's 250 leading the solo department. Maintenance posted 2825 and 1018 for seasonal records.

15,750 Trout Are Planted in Ulster County, Snell Says

New York, April 8 (AP)—Pauline Betz and Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Cooke, present and former national women's tennis chair persons, were suspended from further amateur competition today by the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association, which questioned their status in the face of plans for a professional tour.

The U. S. L. T. A. said the action was taken on the recommendation of the rules committee, holding final action by the executive committee because of a question of their amateur status at the result of a letter sent to clubs here and abroad by Elwood Cooke of "Sports" Tours soliciting prosocial tennis engagements for Miss Betz and Mrs. Cooke.

Miss Betz, who holds the U. S. and Wimbledon turf court singles titles as well as the national indoor championship, is now in Monte Carlo after competing in several European tournaments.

Local Ring Card Slated Next Week

Boxing fans who patronize B'nai Brith bouts at the municipal auditorium must wait another week for the next card on account of the Jewish holidays.

The program of ring duels originally scheduled for tomorrow night has been moved over to Thursday, April 17, on account of the Passover feast, duration of which covers the regular boxing date.

Dr. Sam Goldfarb, B'nai Brith's chairman of the sport, today said he had no announcement to make regarding next week's card. He told a reporter, "We're waiting to hear from Ben Becker on a regular boxing date.

Bowling fans are assured of one of the highlight attractions of the season. The Martin Kegleleers are powered by Marty Chitman.

Two impressive strings of eight victories apiece currently held by Harold and Cliff Quicks will be tossed into the open tonight when the brother act of Nick Kashish's city-wide billiard tournament will determine the 1947 city champion.

The match starts at 7:30 o'clock and a capacity turnout is expected.

The Quicks have smashed the way to the top of the standings to date which include eight other competitors. Both are undefeated and tonight's match is expected to furnish plenty of color.

Harold, the younger brother, holds a slight edge over Cliff also of bowling fame in the matter of high runs in the tournament.

Harold has bashed a 29 run while Cliff has stroked his best of 28.

Tonight's novel brother act, which is anticipated to draw a record crowd, also pleased the popular Nick Kashish, Nick, in a statement today, "exclaimed,

Chicago, April 9 (AP)—Outfielder Bill Nicholson of the Chicago Cubs, weighing 200 pounds, somewhat lighter than last season, has arrived here for treatment of his injured leg. The Cubs' physician, after checking Nick thoroughly, said, "he has nothing more than a pulled muscle in his right leg which a little rest and heat will take care of—he will be ready for the opener with Pittsburgh Tuesday."

Kansas City, April 9 (AP)—Chicago White Sox Manager Ted Lyons trimmed his squad further today by optioning Bill Evans, promising right-hander to Little Rock of the Southern Association.

Dallas, Texas, April 9 (AP)—The world champion St. Louis Cardinals clash with the Dallas Rebels of the Texas League again today and hope to avenge yesterday's 3-1 setback at the Rebels' hands. Right-handers Johnny Beazley and Ken Burkhardt are the likely Red Bird starters.

Hickory, N. C., April 9 (AP)—The injury jinx that has plagued the New York Giants this spring, struck again yesterday when rookie outfielder Whitey Lockman suffered a broken bone about eight inches below his knee and a reverse dislocation of the ankle in a game against Cleveland at Sheffield, Ala. Lockman is expected to be out of action for three months.

New York, April 9 (AP)—The Yankees were scheduled for light workout today at Yankee Stadium in preparation for their week-end series with Brooklyn at Ebbets Field. The Yanks arrived home following their 7-3 conquest of Baltimore in the Maryland city yesterday.

Los Angeles, April 9 (AP)—Babe Ruth, pale and haggard after a siege of illness that sent him to a New York hospital for a serious neck operation, went about the business of soaking up sunshine in this resort city today. The former New York Yankee slugger arrived

Better Bowling

By BILLY SIXTY

THE BABE'S STILL KING

SHIFT FOR SPARES: Shifting proper angles for spare shooting is important and not easy. Bowlers naturally have trouble adjusting themselves—their body position—for various spare angles, especially the OUTSIDE pins. But I see advanced bowlers, as well, who somehow don't seem to appreciate the advantage of getting properly set for end shots.

On outside pins—Nos. 6-10 on the right and 4-7 on the left—some of our better bowlers, averaging around 200, persist in shifting to the left side of the alley for the 4-7 spare and to the right for the 6-10 instead of using as wide an angle ACROSS ALLEY as possible.

The illustration shows the proper direction for shooting left-end pins, and with a high scoring value on spares, the beginner should immediately adopt the prescribed method. The shift to the RIGHT near the gutter, for the 4-7 spare makes a bigger target of the pins. From this angle it is possible to hit the pins on EITHER side. That goes as well for the No. 7 pin alone—what with the gutter on its left side. Shooting the 4-7 spare from the LEFT side which is usually skiddy because it's used comparatively little also invites a cherry chop, taking the 4 off the 7.

In shooting any spare, the thing to remember is to follow through fully so that the arm is extended in a STRAIGHT LINE with the hand in a position as if to reach for the pin or pins being shot.

isters should accept the principle that the resources of the Ruhr and Silesia must fit into the whole European economy so that neither Germany nor Poland should have exclusive control. The exact details should not be laid down as hard and fast rules, but should be administered by a suitable international agency, perhaps such as the European Economic Commission.

The United States is willing to agree to French demands for the Saar, but within present limits and thus without the enlargement of the area which France would control.

Poland, German Rights

3. German areas which Poland now is "administering" under the Potsdam Agreement, including East Prussia, Upper Silesia and Northeast Pomerania, should be given fully to Poland, but the agricultural lands immediately east of the Oder and the Neisse river lines should be in some degree, at least, restored to Germany, to give Germany more balance in her economy.

4. The Ruhr and the Rhineland for which the French have been demanding separate regimes should be retained in Germany, but with provision, as explained, for some more or less permanent international administration or supervision of the resources.

5. Other German boundary rectifications requested by the smaller nations should be fully studied. Probably some will be agreed to.

There was some talk of an inquiry into the Polish administration of the areas shown from Germany under the Potsdam declaration. However, American advisers take the line that this should be done on the initiative of or under the authority of the Council of Foreign Ministers, rather than the United Nations.

For the amazing fact is—that new brand of soap didn't take money from other soap companies. The product and its advertising increased the total consumption of soap. So there was more business, better business—more and better jobs.

How could they sell it at such a low cost as to be able to sell it cheaply? Only through advertising.

Today they sell millions of dollars of this soap powder per year—making hundreds of new jobs in a huge factory, hundreds of jobs with firms who supply the raw materials, more and better jobs in stores that handle that soap—and in banks, railroads, truck lines, insurance companies, all of whom have more work to do—and more money coming in—because of this added soap business.

You're More Secure

Apply this very prosaic soap story to the more glamorous fields of automobiles, refrigerators, clothing, furniture—everything you buy. You'll see plainly how advertising acts as the spark plug of business. You'll see how advertising—today and tomorrow—is creating opportunity for you, and making your present job more secure.

LABORER—There are no lay-offs when things are busy. A rush means overtime for me. So when advertising sells goods for my firm, I get more in my pay envelope.

EXPRESSMAN—My job depends on goods being shipped. And the main reason goods are shipped is because they are sold. So by selling goods, advertising helps me be sure of steady work.

HOUSEWIFE—It's a perfect circle. When advertising makes us women go to the store to buy, we stimulate business. And it's when business is good that our husbands are secure in their jobs. So let's be grateful for advertising.
